THE COVER—Thoughts of Sun Valley and Kappa Alpha Theta's 40th Grand Convention crowd in these days on the busy pattern of each Theta's ways—on the college girl studying for final examinations, punctuating her work with spring formals, lazy picnics and the almost impossible task of squeezing that last pair of shoes into her suitcase for the trip home. And the career girl planning her summer vacation and the homemaker deep in the throes of getting the children ready for camp and summer wardrobes lined up for the family—these, too, think of the wonderful time awaiting all Thetas at Sun Valley.

But the time for merely dreaming is past. Won't YOU make your reservation today?

Grand Convention

Today

This is Redfish Lake, high in the Sawtooth mountains near Sun Valley.

FROM THE GRAND PRESIDENT—

Calling YOU to Convention!

"From Coast to Coast, from the North to the Southland," Thetas will be gathering this summer in that ideal Convention spot, Sun Valley. A look at the pictures in the magazine show you what a beautiful place awaits us. Will YOU be there?

Our program is designed to fit all who attend—we shall have round tables, panels and discussion groups to help you with your fraternity problems for the next two years. Our social program, keyed to the climate and locale, will be varied, gay and informal.

The plans for the Special Train make all us officers wish we could be with you, instead of going ahead, to see that everything is ready for you, and to greet you when you arrive. The half days off from business sessions will give you a chance to see the mountains and get the real vacation feeling, and the banquet, as convention banquets always are, will be a dream of beauty.

Come to Sun Valley and be a part of all this. I shall be looking for you. "See you at Sun Valley."

Loyally in Theta,

Walter S. French
Grand President

Friendship, Inspiration, Pleasure— These, Grand Convention Means

To the practical Theta, attendance at Grand Convention is an investment. It provides the quick way of acquiring an intimate knowledge of our fraternity and its aims and functions. It offers rich opportunities for exciting new friendships and for the renewal of acquaintances. And it promises delightful experiences and pleasures which will linger in your memories long after the summer has ended.

When you look through the pages and pictures of this Convention issue, you will be sure to be in the market for the investment in yourself which Grand Convention represents.

From the hilarious informality of Stunt Night to the traditional formal Banquet, Grand Convention offers variety, excitement, pleasure, and inspiration.

"The Old Mining Days" is the theme for Stunt Night which will follow the barbecue supper at Trail Creek. Everyone will enter into the spirit of the evening and will dress in costumes of the mining West. Early pioneers, cowboys, prospectors, can can dancers all will be in evidence. Districts XIV and XV will be in charge of stunts.

Grand Council has arranged an outstanding program including talented speakers, general fraternity business, and discussion of significant matters pertaining to college members and alumni.

Enthusiasm is mounting the country over. Requests are being received for detailed information on both hotel and railroad accommodations. All signs indicate a large and successful meeting. If you have not made your reservations, better do so at once.

For your convenience, Pullman reservation blanks for the special are included in this issue as are hotel reservations. Please follow the instructions carefully. MAKE YOUR PLANS NOW FOR GRAND CONVENTION AT SUN VALLEY!

Plan Now to Join Our Special Train

Delegates from points east and southeast of Chicago will find that train service from almost all points will reach Chicago in time to make a convenient connection with the Theta Special.

Those from the St. Louis-Kansas City area and states south of those points will find convenient service available from St. Louis or Kansas City to Denver, which will enable them to connect with our Special there.

Delegates from California points can use regular train service by way of Ogden, Utah, to Shoshone, Idaho, and then by bus to Sun Valley. If a sufficient number travels together to warrant operation of a special car (usually 18 persons required), arrangements can be made to start a car at Salt Lake City or Ogden, which could be attached to the Special Train at Pocatello. These details can be worked out later when it is determined how many will use rail service from California.

Those from the Pacific Northwest can use regular trains on convenient schedules to Shoshone, Idaho, where direct bus connections are made to Sun Valley, two hours distant.

Free afternoons at Convention will find Thetas enjoying this golf course and the many other recreational facilities Sun Valley offers.

How to Make Your Reservations

It is suggested that you talk over your plan with your local agent who can advise you regarding rail fares, return routes, and schedules.

Our Special Train will carry the latest Pullman sleeping cars with the following types of accommodation: lower and upper berths; roomettes; bedrooms; compartments and drawing rooms.

The reservation blank addressed to Mr. John C. Pollock, Union Pacific Railroad, Chicago, Illinois, printed in this issue, is for your convenience in requesting your Pullman space.

It is important that you indicate not only the space you want on the going trip—but also that you let us know what you will need returning from Sun Valley so that we can provide adequate accommodations on regular trains.

You will find that for only a slight additional cost, roundtrip tickets from many eastern points can be extended to include Portland and the Pacific Northwest or to return by way of California.

After you have talked over your plans with your local agent, then—

- 1. Buy a first class ticket from your home town to Sun Valley or Ketchum, Idaho, over your choice of route to Chicago, then via Chicago and North Western Railway, Chicago to Omaha, and Union Pacific Railroad to Sun Valley.
- 2. Arrange your Pullman reservations from your home town to Chicago or to the point where you will join the Theta Special.
- 3. Fill in and return the reservation application form along with your check for reservation on the Special Train. Indicate how you plan to return from Sun Valley.

Upon receipt of your reservation form, Mr. Pollock will write you giving detailed information concerning return schedules. When you get this information your local agent will be able to take care of your return space for you.

Are You Wondering What to Wear?

Sun Valley in June is usually warm and sunny during the day but cools off as soon as the sun goes down.

You will not need elaborate clothes—cotton dresses, sport clothes, sweaters, a top coat, and a formal for the banquet are all that are necessary.

Everyone should bring a costume for stunt night, and if you intend to ride, swim, or skate, bring along the clothes for these. Skates may be rented at Sun Valley.

These Spokane alumnae, who are familiar with the cool summer evenings in the Northwest, model suits and topcoats which will be appropriate for Sun Valley in June. From left to right they are: Jean Bordwell Anderson, Cecil Benjamin Talley, Evelyn Peterson Melrose, and Julia Davis Stuart.

Casual clothes and cottons will be just the thing for business sessions and free-time wear. From left to right, Phyllis Carter Perrine, Mary Belle Bennett Backlund, and Helen Buchanan Haltom model the kind of clothes you'll wear most. Mrs. Haltom, incidentally, is chairman of the Executive Committee for Convention.

Julia Davis Stuart, left, member-at-large on the Convention executive committee, and Mary Belle Bennett Backlund, both members of the Spokane chapter, give a preview of the formal wear which will be seen at the Banquet the last evening of Convention.

Looking as if they had just stepped off the Special Train and were making their grand entrance to Convention are Jean Bordwell Anderson, left, and Helen Buchanan Haltom.

Clothes modelled through the courtesy of The Crescent Store, Spokane, Wash.

June 26 at Trail Creek——

It's Stunt Night

Typical of the Thetas you'll see at the costume party on Stunt Night, which follows the theme of the pioneer mining days, are these three members of the Spokane Alumnae chapter. The bartender is Betty Watson Slaughter, chapter president; the miner is Evelyn Peterson Melrose, and the dance hall girl is Grace McIntosh Kendall.

You'll travel smooth and easy on a shiny train, but you should remember Lewis and Clark who had a hard time just gittin' into this country, what with rapids and falls in the rivers, and snow-filled passes in the mountains. It'll be a mighty purty sight you'll be seein' when you "gih h'yar," and you'll know why the Indians named this place Idaho, which means "Gem of the Mountains."

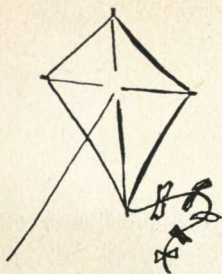

Come One! Come All!

You pioneers, sourdoughs, stampedeers, tin-horns, lumberjacks, tramps, Indians, dandies,— and you dance-hall gals join the party in costumes of '98.

Hit the old trail that leads to that gold mine in them Sawtooth mountains of Sun Valley, whar thar's even gold in the sunshine. We'll follow the vein that leads us to Trail Creek where there'll be an old hoe-down of dancin' and singin' and eatin' with special entertainment by northwest Thetas.

Plan your costume now to join into the spirit of the mining days of '98.

THE KITE FLIES AGAIN!

The Kite, the Kappa Alpha Theta Convention newspaper, will be unfurled for the 17th time at the 40th Grand Convention in Sun Valley, Idaho.

A four-fold paper similar to the Swampscott Kite, with four news-filled issues, is planned. The Kite is a "must" for those at home who are eager for Convention highlights as well as for those Thetas who are lucky enough to attend. Subscriptions will be mailed daily from Sun Valley. Order one for yourself now, for a favorite Theta sister, or perhaps, you would like to send the Convention news to a Theta shut-in. The cost is $1.25 for all four issues including postage.

It's the Theta's newspaper and the more Thetas with a finger in the inkpot, the better it will be. Your Editor will eagerly welcome any of you past or future "News-hounds." If you are coming to Sun Valley and want to help, won't you drop a note to Marjorie Montrose, 47½ W. High Street, Painesville, Ohio?

Boulder Welcomes Theta Train Riders

We "Boulderites" are exceedingly pleased that convention-bound Thetas from the special train will have time to visit our campus. The University of Colorado campus is at its loveliest in June and we welcome the chance to show it to visitors. Greek Letter Women Mark "Know Your America Week"

How well do you know your America?

Do you know what the American freedoms are and why we treasure them?

In hundreds of cities and towns throughout the Nation on May 14 to 20, fraternity women will participate in Know Your America Week. The benefits and opportunities of the free way of life are increasing in importance to more and more people in every American community. Citizens will rededicate themselves to the preservation of the basic American principles which will be exemplified and dramatized through numerous and varied programs planned in the respective communities during Know Your America Week.

What can you do?

Fraternity women can plan programs within their chapters and Panhellenics as well as volunteer their services to the local organizers, or if no organizers, can volunteer such leadership themselves to the civic authorities or broadcasting studios in their communities. In observing Know Your America Week, fraternity women can volunteer to present or take part in historical pageants; college chapter houses can display the flag throughout the Week (do our chapter houses own such emblems? They should!) Fraternity women can contribute choral groups; they can offer to staff booths for the dissemination of information; they can speak on radio and community programs, and they can offer organizational experience or the "know how" to get things done. Fraternity members are among the most experienced and devoted group of volunteer workers in the United States. Put the leadership training and organizational experience your fraternity helped to develop in you at work during Know Your America Week.

All programs throughout the United States will highlight the story of our nation; its laws and liberties, its faiths and national origins; its schools and churches; its clubs and free associations; its rights and responsibilities.

We college women have responsibility as citizens because we enjoy the freedoms our forefathers won for us.

In recognition of this responsibility, the National Panhellenic Conference joins with 54 other national organizations representing approximately 800,000 Citizens, all associated in the All-American Conference, in urging their memberships to observe and participate in Know Your America Week.

At a called meeting of delegates of the National Panhellenic Conference on March 29, 1951 in Chicago, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"The National Panhellenic Conference becomes a member of the All-American Conference to Combat Communism, as a demonstration by the college Greek letter societies for women of their opposition to the philosophy and techniques of communism, and as evidence of their devotion to American freedom."

The All-American Conference is an informational, educational and advisory body. Each participating organization speaks for itself on matters of policy. It does not speak for the Conference. The Conference does not speak for it.

Dr. Daniel A. Poling, who serves as chairman of the All-American Conference, in an address on World Peace on June 27, 1951 before the Supreme Council Session of the United Commercial Travelers of America said:

"The price of freedom first of all is knowledge. We need to know these United States of America. . . . We need to know what is going on in America.

"Freedom is not free. Always freedom has its price. And that price has been paid. Freedom is both an inheritance and an achievement. . . . We have it from those who went before us, who in their time paid the price. . . . Theirs is a finished work. But in some sense, at least, this freedom must be re-born in me, it must become alive in me. I must make my contribution here and now."

Fraternity women have their opportunity to contribute here and now in Know Your America Week, May 14-20.

Theta Court at Institute Is a Home Away from Home

If all the happiness and heartaches, the hopes and frustrations being lived in the Kappa Alpha Theta Court at the Institute of Logopedics were described, they would indeed fill a large volume. For purposes of this report, however, let us glance into just one of these housemother apartments.

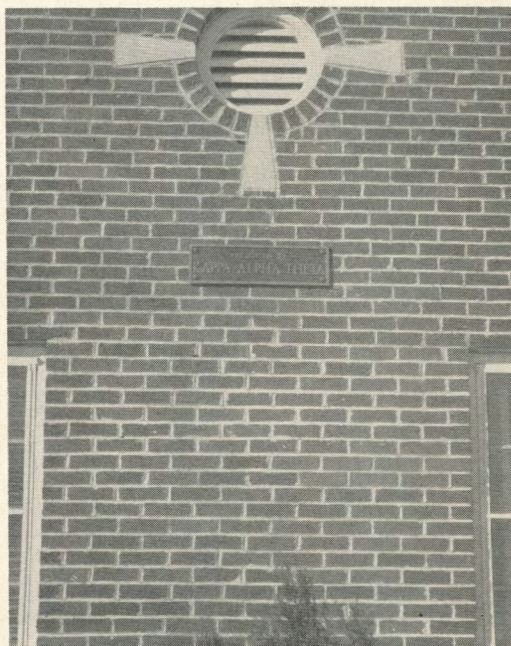

2313 Jardine Drive is a home-away-from-home at the present time for four people: Mrs. McBride, the housemother, whose home is in Arkansas; two 9-year-olds, Kathleen from Wyoming, and Jennifer from Ohio; and 11-year-old Bette from Oklahoma. The three girls are going through possibly the most important period of their lives, for their progress at the Institute can mean the difference between happy, useful living or a life of silent dependence.

The need for a secure and cheerful home for them at this time can hardly be over-estimated. Mrs. McBride, 50-ish, a former school teacher and herself a parent, assumes her responsibilities capably and with understanding. She apparently enjoys thoroughly using all of her school teacher's know-how and experience in establishing a home for her three new "daughters."

Kathleen, high-spirited, beautiful child of the great open spaces, has been a challenging problem from the beginning. Handicapped by a serious hearing defect which resulted from an automobile accident at the age of two, Kathleen has very little speech. She is making excellent progress in her work here, but in the meantime, she shares the frustrations every deaf child experiences from the great wall of silence which isolates him from the thoughts and communications of the speaking world. And when she came to the Institute last fall, separation from her beloved horses, the seemingly cramped "apartment" and "Village" life did not tend to reduce her inner conflicts. She has expended her tremendous energy in whole-hearted participation in the boys' cowboy and Indian games, but occasional flashes of unmanageable temper indicate the turmoil which still seethes within.

Then about a month ago, Bette came to live at 2313. Two years older than either of the other girls, Bette is a little lady, with unusual poise and a good command of the social graces. Bette's aphasia was caused by a brain damage at birth. She has been at the Institute for about two years, and is looking forward to going home in the spring. Her speech is now near-normal. Although she is considerably behind her age level in school, she is making excellent progress in the aphasic classroom at the Institute and her retardation is no liability to vivacious Bette in her relations with other children.

From the time Bette joined their "home," Kathleen has been impressed by the older girl's charm and affability. Cowboys and Indians are still important to Kathleen, but she is fascinated and impressed by this new feminine world represented by Bette.

Des Moines Aids Institute With Doll Clothes Sale

By CHARLOTTE DICKSON BRUNK
Des Moines and Beta Kappa

A check for the fat sum of $700 was written by the Des Moines alumnae chapter to the Institute of Logopedics this year.

And behind that slim but substantial piece of paper lies a story of many stitches.

For months the alumnae, all who could sew a fine seam or even ones not so fine, cut and fitted and sewed hundreds of doll garments of every kind—from sturdy jeans to glamorous evening gowns. There were suits, coats, formals, dresses, lingerie, layettes for wee dolls, fetching hats, knitted outfits. There was a busy time in many a home as mothers were given expert advice by little doll-mothers on what every properly dressed doll should have.

Then came the sale. Younker Brothers, big department store in Des Moines, helped along the good deed and donated a place on their fifth floor right in the path of shoppers and tearoom users. It was a huge and pleasing success.

The long work was over and there was money for the alumnae's civic enterprise. They could relax. But only a short while. Now the group is starting again on this year's doll dress sale.

Jane Bush Remer was general chairman of this first Doll Dress Shop. Co-chairmen of the sale were Mitzie Gould Covey and Betty Burnette Nutt. Area chairman who headed sewing groups included Sue Collins Potts, Katherine Allen Montgomery, Doris Mackaman Corrie, Erne Warren Payne, Mary Claire Mills Cutforth, LuVern Gray Shiffler, Mary Hutchins Sears, Virginia Peterson Blodgett, Lois Bumgardner Hall and Patricia Shattuck Rounds.

Jennifer is the third member of this family of individuals. The most seriously handicapped of all, she also holds within her damaged brain the promise of great ability. Childhood receptive-expressive aphasia has limited her understanding of language so seriously that she had no speech when she first entered training at an Institute field center about a year and a half ago. Nevertheless she passes psychometric performance tests with the speed and accuracy of the average adult! In fact, on the basis of a series of non-language tests of intelligence, her I.Q. has been rated at around 135. Yet, until this wonderful potential can be given words to think with and language for communication, it is tragically imprisoned. Although she is now making good progress in her speech in the training room, little has yet carried over to her home situation. Jennifer's activities center around her erector set, various construction games, and most of all the making of unbelievably accurately detailed, three-dimensional, cardboard replicas of animals, household articles, and magazine pictures.

Set apart by both her precocity and her handicap, Jennifer is just beginning to join in the activities of the other two girls. When "pyjama time" comes in the evening now, Jennifer recently has started enjoying her comic books with the other two. She is pleased with the others when Mrs. McBride appears with a treat of apples or ice cream. When irrepressible Bette initiates an exhibit of Ballerina Dancing, Jennifer is interested, if not an active participant.

Three little girls, with all the usual problems of childhood, plus tremendous difficulties dictated by their serious handicaps. But while they are receiving the scientific help necessary for their rehabilitation, they are making the many adjustments of growing up in the healthy background of their "home" in the Kappa Alpha Theta Court.

BI Pledges Make Dolls for Institute

It was a little girl's dream come true to be able to choose a doll to take to her speech training lesson from the wide assortment of animals and dolls which the Beta Iota pledge class of Colorado University in Boulder made for the children in training at the Institute of Logopedics. It was a very hard choice, for the kangaroo mama with her baby in her pouch, the stocking dolls, yarn dolls, washrag puppies, calico cats, humpty dumpty, the elephant and the cross-eyed shmoo with the two little shmoos were all so colorful and appealing to a little girl. Incidentally, this little speech-handicapped lass finally picked the elephant.

Along with the 25 dolls came two beautifully hand-painted story books and several scrap-books. The storybooks, George, the story of a turtle, and Strange Shirt Spot, by Dr. Suss, portrayed children's tales with hand-painted pictures and hand-lettered stories.

The dolls will be used to help the speech-impaired children in the occupational and physical therapy departments, in the speech training rooms and in the classrooms for the cerebral palsied, the deaf and hard of hearing and the aphasic children. One of the little shmoo dolls was the choice of a physical therapist because this would be easier for the cerebral palsied child's unsteady hands to grasp.

See You at Sun Valley!

These Rush Chairmen Will Welcome Your Help

For the convenience of alumnæ who may know of such girls, an information blank is printed here, along with the names and addresses of the rush chairmen of the college chapters. Note that the information blank requires two signers, and send it, with any information you may have, to the appropriate chapter. Your help will be appreciated.

Early Members of Delta Chapter Honored at Founders' Day

Six women who were initiated into Delta chapter 50 years or more ago were honored at the Founders' Day observance at the chapter house in Champaign on Feb. 20. College and alumnae members joined in the event.

The six honored members and the year of their pledging are: Pearl Higginbotham Collins, 1902; Mary B. Davis, 1897; Frances Headen Draper, 1902; Nelle Trevett Finch, 1898; Sabra Stevens Reece, 1902, and Edith Roberts Weeks, 1900. They entertained the 100 college and alumnae Thetas with humorous reminiscences of their college days. They told of early housing problems and described rushing as it was during those "horse and buggy" days. The "big" Theta house, so spacious it could accommodate 14 girls and their chaperone, was built in the fall of 1905 on the site of the present chapter house in Champaign.

Mrs. Reece introduced each speaker and also read a history of the local chapter, which was transferred, in 1895, from Illinois Wesleyan university where it had been established in 1875. The history was based on letters which she received from early members when she compiled the story in 1916 for the chapter's archives.

Mrs. Burton C. Hurd was in charge of decorations for the dinner party which preceded the program. The tables were lighted by black and gold tapers and decorated with gold Theta emblems, surrounded with smilax. Mrs. Holland Ramey and Mrs. Ralph Gher, jr., were co-chairmen with Mrs. Hurd.

These five Thetas who were initiated into Delta chapter 50 years or more ago were honored at the chapter's Founders' Day celebration on Feb. 20. From left to right they are: Frances Headen Draper, Mary Davis, Edith Roberts Weeks, Nelle Trevett Finch and Sabra Stevens Reece. Also honored was Pearl Higginbotham Collins.

Sacramento Club Receives Chapter Charter

On a radiant California day in January the Sacramento Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnæ club received its chapter charter.

On a similar day, just 30 years ago, Gertrude Gibbs Meier (Upsilon) with the aid of Florence Bills Breuner (Phi) and Phyllis Hyatt Gardiner (Phi) had formed the Sacramento Alumnæ club. Mrs. Meier was the first person to sign the charter of the new chapter.

Sacramento, the capital city of California, has grown rapidly in these past 30 years. As business and industry have enlarged the city, so has the club increased its membership until today it has representatives from many college and university chapters throughout the country. In 1949-51, under the leadership of Shirley Scott Gianelli (Alpha Nu) and advice of Helen Little Robinson (Alpha Nu), plans were laid out for the formation of an Alumnæ chapter.

The installation was held on January 26, preceded by a luncheon at the Del Paso Country Club in Sacramento. Virginia Polley Lefferdink (Alpha Gamma) was general chairman of Founders' Day, aided by Jean Higgins Bonney (Omega), Claire Fitzgerald McLaughlin (Beta Mu), Lucille Hewes Sedgwick (Beta Mu), Anita Hincelot Meffley (Beta Mu) and Louise Aunger Scurfield (Gamma Xi). Running the entire length of the table was our Theta chain on a background of ivy leaves unfolding a pattern of silver and green. A magnificent Theta crest, which was made by Mrs. Lefferdink, added much to the impressiveness of the luncheon and installation. Grace Gilmore Pope (Phi) lit the candles in memory of the four founders. Mrs. M. Kinzie Miller, jr., Grand Alumnae Secretary, conducted the installation, and Ann Fisher Stroppini (Beta Iota), chapter president, accepted the charter. Other officers installed were: Virginia Polley Lefferdink (Alpha Gamma), vice president; Lucille Hewes Sedgwick (Beta Mu), recording secretary; Anita Hincelot Meffley (Beta Mu), corresponding secretary; Elizabeth Jean Dawson (Alpha Kappa), treasurer; Shirley Scott Gianelli (Alpha Nu), Panhellenic representative, and Annis Steinley Mather (Delta), editor.

Irene Combe Miller, Grand Alumnae Secretary, presents the Sacramento chapter charter to the group's president, Ann Fisher Stroppini.

Salem Alumnae Really "Adopted" Claude

By MADELEINE SOULÉ BURKE

On January 11, 1948, Ann McCargar received a letter from "American Aid to France, Inc." It said in part, "Please find enclosed the picture and case history of Claude Poulain, the little boy I mentioned to you on the telephone. I am very glad the Kappa Alpha Theta alumnae group has decided to take care of him for six months."

Four years have elapsed and the Salem (Ore.) Alumnae club is still taking care of Claude. This has become our major project, together with our assistance to his "maman," Frida.

Claude was eleven years old when we "adopted" him. We know only that his father had been killed in the war, that his mother was very ill, and that they were in great want. We sent boxes of food, clothing, and blankets every month but heard nothing from them for a long time. Now we know that stationery and stamps are costly and the Poulains no doubt couldn't obtain them. We sent some personalized stationery in our box and shortly afterward received letters from both Claude and his mother. They were written in French and were strictly "thank you notes" to "Messieurs et Dames McCargar" and to "Mes chers Parrain et Marraine."

It was rather discouraging not to know more about our protégés. Alice Powell, however, got the bright idea of writing to a friend in Paris, asking her to look up the Poulains and to tell us about them in detail.

In answer to the letter, her friend wrote "I went several times to Levallois without meeting anyone, as mother and child work, but I returned one night and was delighted with Claude Poulain." (That pleased us as it would if it were said of one of our own children.) "He is the nicest boy you could imagine. When he learned that I was sent by the American ladies, he hugged me like a child. The mother is a very nice, clean, and well mannered woman, —very frail, coughing a lot. She is working as a char-woman at the town hall in Levallois-Perret. By her work she has supported so far her boy who was very delicate after she found him back"—(It seems she had lost track of him during the war.) "but in order to feed him enough on her meagre salary she ate very little and you can see that. They got four packages from you for Xmas and they are most thankful for them. She says she writes to America to thank the donors—not by air mail of course as the postage is terribly expensive."

"Claude has started to work in a bakery but he has been offered a better job in a factory in Suresnes—unfortunately it is far from his home and the transportation costs are too expensive for him to accept. There is a thing he would love to have—it is a second hand bicycle, then he could take the job in Suresnes. The mother said she would be willing to refund the amount, so much a month."

Then we received the letters from Claude and Frida. They also mentioned the bicycle, so we sent a draft to Mrs. Powell's friend who rushed post haste to deliver it. She reported that "Claude and his mother cried of happiness." She says now that Claude can have his bicycle, together they will make about thirty dollars a month and to them it sounds heavenly.

"Their room is quite bare, moldy stone walls, a bed, two chairs, one unpainted cupboard, an old table, but it is well lighted and very clean. Claude was delighted—he had received a food parcel the day before and everything enchants him. He was overjoyed by a set of pencils fixed like golf clubs in a golf bag. I am sure he does not know what golf clubs are but he thought the whole thing was wonderful. I do not think you realize the wonderful adventure you dispense to this poor little boy. To him the "American Ladies" are some sort of fairies; when he opens a parcel he does not only appreciate the food but he is quite moved because as he says 'the ladies think of me.' Yesterday I brought him airmail paper and a stamped envelope. Air mail paper is a great luxury in France and stamps very expensive for a pitiful budget."

"I think American generosity is boundless and I am very touched by it. Every day, every where I go I have proof of that generosity. It is hard to express the gratitude we feel."

Whenever our club meets, the first thing said is "Have we heard anything more from Claude?"

Harriet Eliel Directs Education Institute

This article about Harriett Judd Eliel of Omega chapter at the University of California is reprinted from the San Francisco Call-Bulletin of Feb. 29.

Mrs. Harriet Eliel, a leader in San Francisco social welfare work and member of Governor Warren's advisory committee on children and youth, has been named director of the new West Coast office here of the Institute of International Education.

The office is the third of five regional offices being organized by the institute through a special grant from the Ford Foundation.

Mrs. Eliel, a past president of the California League of Women Voters, is a member of the boards of trustees of San Francisco State College and the San Francisco Museum of Art. She is the wife of Paul Eliel, widely known industrial relations and management consultant.

Purpose of the new office is to help foreign students and visiting specialists to gain an understanding of American culture, and to give information on opportunities for American students to study abroad.

Ann Meek Logan Is Foreign Service Officer

An interesting career in foreign service is that of Ann Meek Logan, an alumna of Beta Beta chapter at Randolph-Macon. Ann's experiences abroad began in 1946 when, after having lived in San Antonio, Tex., where she had been active in Theta alumnae affairs and twice served as president of the Alumnae club, she went with her two children to live temporarily in Guatemala.

Of her career since she writes:

"The following year we spent in San José, Costa Rica where I taught in an elementary school. In 1947, I was Director of the Columbus School in Medellin, Colombia. The fall of that year I returned to the United States where I was awarded a grant by the Department of State to serve in the União Cultural-Brasil-Estados Unidos of São Paulo, Brazil. This institution is a Bi-national Cultural center operating under a Board of Directors composed of both Brazilians and Americans. In 1949 I was appointed Assistant Director. In June of 1951, I returned to the United States for home leave and was sent back to Brazil in October as Assistant Cultural Attaché in the American Embassy in Rio de Janeiro as a Foreign Service Staff Officer.

"My daughter, Lynn, 15, is making her home in the United States with my mother in Camden, Ark., but I have my son, John, now aged 9, still with me. He is in the 4th grade of the American school here in Rio. At present, we are living in a hotel as we have been unable to find a suitable apartment. The city is threatened with the loss of all electrical power because of a drought so it is possibly just as well I am there and not in my own place. Rio is even more beautiful than they say and as our hotel is right on the famous Copacabana Beach, we find living very pleasant."

"Know Your America"

As Mrs. Fred Sharp, national president of Alpha Sigma Alpha, editorialized in a recent issue of their publication:

"In the security of friendship, we can review the basic values of fraternity and the ever-widening boundaries for the application of the principles. In mutual reverence we can experience the inspiration and the meaning of the fraternity rituals and their eternal truths. Together as groups of American women wherein cooperation and understanding are strong realities, we can discuss the American spirit, the American idea. For these ends we will take time, carefully and thoughtfully as our own. We will take it with respect and compelling gratitude. There will be no complaining about the lack of time, for our days and our hours will be worthy of themselves and equal to the urgencies and the crises of our time. Each individual fraternity member can be armed against communism and subversive influences because through serious conscious practice, she will have learned and can say to others, take time to think; it is the source of power."

College Chapters Keep Busy!

Chapter letters marked with asterisks have earned bonus points for their chapters in the magazine-sponsored competition for college chapters.

Alberta

A happy and busy weekend was spent when Alberta initiated eight new members Jan. 27. The new initiates are: Eva Bailie, Audrey Carson, Doreen Gibbons, Evelyn Hage, Marilyn Hymas, Florence Long, Audrey Rigaux and Helen Swainson. Initiation followed our Founders' Day banquet which was held in the MacDonald hotel on Jan. 24. Marnie MacKay as vice president was toastmistress.

Kappa Alpha Theta showed its enthusiasm on the Alberta campus at the Panhellenic banquet on Jan. 10 in the Main Dining Room at the MacDonald hotel.

A "Little Kids Party" proved a successful exchange with the Phi Deltis on Feb. 2. Bubble gum was popular entertainment. On Feb. 9 we entertained the Zates at a breakfast party and all had a merry time. The pledges held their party Feb. 7 in the form of a sleighride to Whitemud.

Our annual banquet and dance was held Saturday, Feb. 16, in the ABC Salon in the MacDonald hotel. Patronesses were Mrs. H. J. Bishop and Mrs. R. Follensbee.

We were at home for a tea Sunday afternoon, Feb. 23, to all faculty on the Alberta campus. Our housemother, Mrs. Ellinger, and president, Dorothy Livingstone, welcomed guests. Installation of new officers took place Feb. 25. Donna Brown became president, succeeding Dorothy Livingstone.

Mu chapter is proud to be represented in the May Court again this year. Dee Cunningham, our president, was chosen as 1952 May Queen, after having been Charm Queen of her class for the past three years. Kitty Crawford will serve on the court.

During Religion in Life Week, we had a very interesting fireside with Mrs. Geisler, an alumna of Mu chapter. The topic was, "What is Love?" Needless to say, much discussion took place during the evening.

The Meadville alumnae club presented scholarship awards to Ann Clark and Joan Dilley for high scholastic achievement.

Kitty Crawford and B. J. Coulston were elected to "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

We recently received a bevy of letters from our adopted French war orphan, Odette Chaput. The letters and snapshots that Odette has sent to us have been very interesting and we've all enjoyed hearing from her.

Elsie Marten will be installed as our new president on March 3. Mu's newly elected rush chairman is Barbara Walker.

Our annual Spring Formal is scheduled for April 26. Mother's Weekend will be May 3 and 4. The week preceding commencement will be spent at Conneaut Lake. The lake is only ten miles from campus and in the spring becomes the Allegheny annex. With this we close our activities until next fall.

JOAN DICKIE

Arizona

We recently elected our new officers for the coming year. Joan Stevens of Paxton, Ill., handed the president's gavel over to another Illinoisian, Jean Elrod of Kenilworth. The others we elected to assist her on Cabinet are Darien Ainsley, vice president; Mary Jo Wimberley, treasurer; Joan Bryan, corresponding secretary; Isabel Pendergast, recording secretary; Suzy DeMoure, social chairman; Mary Fennemore, rush chairman; Donna Bullard, activities chairman; Marian Meisner, house manager, and Norma Hurley, pledge trainer.

Twenty-three of our thirty pledges are anticipating their initiation early in March. Those who are to receive their pins are Betty Beneker, Barbara Berquist, Martha Ann Chambers, Darlene Flickinger, Joan Wing, Bonnie McFarland, Nancy Johnson, Pam Mueth, Barbara Mitchell, Cynthia Dunbar, Carol McGuire, Tillie Haggerty, Bettye Dammier, Sally Hallburg, Ann Potter, Kay Jacobson, Betty Marx Young, Jeanne Matteson, Mary Jean McGregor, Janice Gregory, Sharon Smith, Pat Kunze and Nancy Laverty.

Second semester rush is over and we have added two more girls to our pledge class. They are Joyce Hanna, who transferred from San Diego, and Virginia Martin, from Tokyo. We also welcome two new transfers: Sally Eisele and Marjorie Young. Sally is from Colorado college and Marge is from San Diego. We also lost two girls over the semester. Ellen Gross and Elizabeth Clark both were graduated in January.

On Feb. 25 we are to celebrate Founders' Day with dinner at the Student Union Junior Ballroom. The pledges will entertain with an original skit afterwards. We are honored in having our District President, Mrs. Taube, with us for the occasion. She is spending four days in Tucson, and we are anxious to get to know her better.

Another Theta has been added to our list of campus beauties. Jean Thomas is one of six finalists for Desert Queen. Representing our house in the coming elections are Mary Fennemore and Mary Jo Wimberley. Mary is running for secretary of the Student Body, and Mary Jo is running for Junior Councilwoman.

Our house average was brought up to a 2.5 this past semester. Our girls who received scholastic honors are: Lucy McAleer, Betty Beneker, Barbara Bitter, Cissy Jewett, Gretchen Kieckhefer, Ann Potter, Marion Meisner, Isabel Pendergast, Mary Jo Wimberley, Jane Evans, Suzy DeMoure, Joan Stevens, Sharon Smith, Pat Kunze, Bonnye McFarland, Tillie Haggerty and Zanier Downs.

Lucy McAleer has the lead in one of the school plays, "Gramercy's Ghost." She is also organizing and directing a cast of Thetas to represent our chapter in the Varsity Show. Gretchen Kieckhefer is once again in charge of the Rodeo dance.

April 24 is the date set for the annual University Sing. We are doing an arrangement of "While We're Young." Our songleader, Toni Harpst, will use 50 of our best singers.

Gamma Lambda started the new year by celebrating Founders' Day with a dessert sing at the house. Then all Thetas plunged into final exams.

We are all sorry to lose our mid-semester graduating senior, Nanette McHead.

Our pledges entertained all the freshman girls on Feb. 16 with a Valentine's Party. It was well attended and very successful.

The Sigma Chi's invited the whole chapter over to their house on Feb. 17 for an afternoon get-together. Social activities continue when on the first of March we have a formal at the house. We are giving engraved mugs as favors.

Beloit's Associated Women Students sponsored a career conference this February. One of the speakers was Joan Lindamer, a charter member of Gamma Lambda.

Twenty of our pledges have been initiated. They are: Bonnie Applequist, Janet Bareis, Virginia Blevins, Sylvia Burke, Gloria Ehrett, Joan Eisha, Joan Gabel, Elaine Georgiades, Phyllis Herndon, Joellyn Laird, Suzanne Reynolds, Nancy Ann Risney, Virginia Rahr, Deborah Rowbotham and Myrtle Yamamoto. Initiation was held on Feb. 24. That evening a banquet was given at the house in honor of the new Thetas.

We were fortunate in having our district president, Mrs. Brandriff, make her annual visit the weekend of initiation.

March 3 is an important day for Gamma Lambda for it is the day of installation of new officers. The outgoing officers are: president, Jean Whitehead; vice president, Carol Christenson; recording secretary, Doris Gabel; treasurer, Martha Masters.

Butler

On Nov. 7, we were happy to welcome three new pledges: Sally Bell, Joan Joyce and Rolene Woodward. Class elections were held here at Butler on Nov. 28, and we were happy to have two Thetas elected. Marga Carter and Pat Ent will serve as junior and senior class secretaries. At the Matrix Table Banquet we were proud to have Patty Payne receive a Junior Hub award for activities.

Christmas provided its usual social whirl. At the annual Father-Daughter Banquet, the pledges' fathers were "pledged" and the neophytes' fathers received their kites. The pledges provided a stunt and the Mothers' club provided the food. Then came the Christmas dance and the Christmas party. After caroling we returned to the house for the pledges' Christmas stunt, the gift exchange and the senior spread.

After Christmas vacation, we returned to face final exams. We have not yet set the date for initiation, but six girls are awaiting the date: Polly Burbank, Delores Peterson, Sally Lou Bell, Rolene Woodward and Patty Martin, upper classmen, and Sara Jane Clark, an honor initiate.

We are proud of our record for philanthropic activities this year. At Christmas we won the Collegian Cheer Drive. Led by Nancy Harkless we collected food and clothing and amassed almost twice the number of points as the winner of the previous record year. Nancy Arrhecker was our chairman of the Blood Drive in which we ran second. For the Heart Fund we really outdid ourselves. By collecting over half of the total amount of money collected by all the organizations in the university, we made Pat Wood Queen of Hearts. As a result, Pat spent a day with Dennis Morgan helping him in his work for the fund in Indianapolis.

MARGA CARTER

California

On Nov. 13 we entertained some of our faculty at dinner, concluding with a panel discussion on "Santa Claus."

Nov. 14 again brought the Ace of Clubs. Semi-annually the Pi Phis, Kappas, Delta Gammas, Alpha Phis, and Thetas give an informal dance together. This year it was held at the Mira Vista Country Club.

Nov. 23 was homecoming weekend and the "Big Game." We entered the float contest, "Toast of the Coast," and although we did not win, we had a wonderful time trying.

Our fall formal this year was held at the Alameda Yacht Club on Dec. 8. On Dec. 19 we held our annual underprivileged children's party. We entertained 20 children for the afternoon with games, gifts and Santa Claus. Ice cream, cookies and candy were served.

We are proud of Nancy Stewart who was elected to Prytanian, junior and senior women's honorary society. Nancy also won the campus literary competition sponsored by Mademoiselle.

On Jan. 12 we enjoyed our annual Founders' Day luncheon at the Women's Athletic Club in Oakland. On Jan. 21 we plunged headlong into finals with great aspirations for success.

After a gay mid-semester vacation, we returned to school on Feb. 12. Before we knew it, rushing was upon us. Only 125 girls went through rushing this spring, of whom we pledged three: Donna Dixon of Piedmont, Beverly Ann Woodward of Fresno, and Katharine Crenshaw of Hawthorne, Nev.

California at Santa Barbara

In January Mrs. Taube, our new district president, spent a few days with us in order to help us with our problems and get acquainted with the girls. She proved very helpful in many cases.

Rushing began the new semester with a bang. Only 45 girls went through which made competition more difficult and forced Panhellenic to limit our number. We all hoped our new living room furniture would be here in time for a few rush parties, but it didn't arrive until a week afterward. However, despite the old furniture we got three lovely girls.

Because of many conflicts we were unable to hold our Founders' Day banquet until the last week in February. We had a dinner at the Barbara hotel. Barbara Lettie spoke for the sophomores, Benny Droste for the juniors and Pat McCarty for the seniors.

On March 2 initiation was held for 11 girls. After initiation everyone went to dinner at El Cortijo.

Roadrunner, our school's annual spring program, is coming up now. The Thetas have become very enthusiastic about taking part in it and many have auditioned for parts.
February 28 CONNIE HARDER

Carnegie Tech*

Greek Sing and Swing, ushering in the spring semester, culminates many weeks of rigorous sing practice. The competition will be held on March 7, and the announcement of the winners will be made at a sorority-fraternity dance the following night. Gamma Theta hopes to follow the same path to victory that she has for the past two years.

The popular all-school production, "Scotch 'n' Soda," marks the opening of Tech's Spring Carnival, a long weekend of fun and gaiety. Many long hours of work will be necessary to make this year as successful as the previous ones in which Theta has walked away with honors for her varsity variety skits and has been well represented on the queen courts.

Two honors have recently been bestowed upon Margie Ruttle: she was chosen honorary Lieutenant Colonel of Scabbard and Blade and also chosen as one of the two attendants to the queen at the Kappa Sigma "Stardust Ball" at Northwestern university.

Our song leader, Mary Jane Troop, has been appearing weekly on television. She plays the violin beautifully, has been asked to play several solos and receives lots of fan mail.

Representing us as candidates for Thistle Queen are Barbara Yates and Marty Frain. One of our new initiates, Edie Engle, has been elected to Student Council to represent the sophomore class.

Beginning March 10, the Thetas will have a series of very busy weeks. The election of new officers and the pledging of eventual wearers of the black and gold constitute the first week's activities. The following weeks will find Thetas entertaining their mothers at a Mother-Daughter luncheon and acting as aids at the Pittsburgh Alumnae dessert bridge.

As a fitting climax to a wonderful year, the Theta kite will sail over our annual "Cotton Ball," to be held May 16 at North Park Lodge.

Gamma Rho chapter at Santa Barbara proudly presents these new initiates.

Cincinnati

As spring rolls around once more with the promise of summer and vacation drawing near, Alpha Taus take a backward look over the past wintry months. Christmas and vacation holidays, semester exams and final grades, open houses and proms, working and campaigning together—these are our Theta memories. The Christmas season and the turn of the year marked a flurry of social activities among the Cincinnati Thetas. Early in December, Alpha Tau presented its outstanding pledge class at the annual pledge formal. Peggy Benjamin, pledge mistress, presented each girl as the band characterized her with a personal and individual song.

Christmas parties abounded as the holiday season got under way. At our chapter party, mothers and daughters exchanged gifts. The Mothers' Club celebrated the Yuletide by giving a party for us complete with Santa Claus and presents for everyone. The annual "out-of-towners" Christmas party brought us together during vacation to meet the Thetas living in Cincinnati from many other chapters over the country.

We caught the true spirit of Christmas at our holiday party for the psychiatric patients at General Hospital. We again collected food and clothing for a Christmas basket for a needy Cincinnati family.

As 1951 drew to a close, the Thetas copped their final trophy for the year. In the Inter-Sorority Debate Tournament our team of Jo Heinz, Nancy Roubush, Ruth Lang and Ophelia Pogue won top honors and received an affirmative vote as one of the outstanding teams in the contest.

Individual honors for Theta in the first months of 1952 were awarded Haven Jones for making the court at the Junior Prom. At the Founders' Day Banquet the Alpha Tau senior activities cup was awarded jointly to Peggy Benjamin and Joyce Ernst.

Spring brought even more activity in Alpha Tau. A visit from our district president, Mrs. Loveless, early in March brought a welcome visitor back to Cincinnati. On March 16 twenty girls will be initiated. They are: Nancy Slagle, Susan Biltz, Meredith Jones, Patricia Jones, Isabel King, Virginia Klein, Polly Keck, Beverly Pochat, Jane Garvey, Mary Ann Vogle, Betty Jane Pickering, Betty Tegel, Katharine Hagen, Elizabeth Jacobs, Barbara Bolce, Virginia Mathews, Mary Cae Planck, Beth Bumiller, Sylvia Weise and Edith Shattuck. Pledge awards will be announced at the initiation banquet following the ceremony. Elizabeth Jacobs gets the scholarship ring, and Mary Cae Planck and Betty Tegel share honors as the activities pledges. Barbara Bolce receives the outstanding pledge award.

With plans under way for the annual scholarship banquet, the spring formal and the senior breakfast, Alpha Tau will climax a successful year with the national convention in June.

March 1

NANCY SIMMONS

Colorado

We were certainly proud of our pledge class this year, with 25 pledges making their grades to be initiated March 9. We're especially proud of Virginia Beresford who made a straight A average. The initiates are: Virginia Beresford, Susan Pigott, Gretchen Gilbert, Florence Black, Carolyn Simpson, Carolyn Lowe, Erline Stahl, Helen Swerer, Jean Hutchinson, Betsy Butterfield, Mary Hunter, Nancy Sue Dodd, Sandra Trask, Grace Getchow, Alice Wylie, Joan Mulligan, Ann Spademan, Joan Daunt, Julie Sherman, Suzanne Olmsted, Ethel Copenhaver, Natalie Snell, Nancy Bruce and Nancy Reynolds.

Early this fall the confident pledges challenged us to a scholarship dinner at which the "smarties" would eat like kings, and the "dunces" would eat mush. The plan was a great success as very few had to be content with the cereal the night we all joined together for dinner.

Plans for the Buff Show during Colorado U. Days are well under way, under the direction of Francis Carswell, assistant chairman, and Cariellen Reeve. Also on the general committee for the celebration are Debby Green, dance chairman, and Sharlene Stevens, assistant chairman of the songfest. Working hard on the Porpoise show this weekend are Lu Webster, Mary Jo Flynn and Cariellen Reeve. Noni Ward is helping with the plans for Senior Week this spring. Beta Iota was well represented in the AWS Revue by Florence Black, Betty Merriam and Dot Baer. Behind the scenes on the stagecrew were Mary Jo Flynn, Cariellen Reeve, Lu Webster and Debby Green.

Officers will be installed for the coming year March 12. They are: president, Robin Dunn; vice president, Debby Green; rush chairman, Jane McKown; pledge trainer, Billie Burnham; house manager, Mim Weller; corresponding secretary, Lu Webster; treasurer, Ann Grettum; recording secretary, Luigi Horne; social chairman, Kathy Chechak; editor, Ann Trucksess; standards, Mary Ellen Stacy; intramurals, Betty Merriam; education, Donna Darley; historian, Erline Stahl; activities, Barb Sittig; courtesy, Ruthmary Pasco and Janie Glascock; junior representative, Natalie Snell; chaplain, Ginny Goodheart; archivists, Mary Gwen Thomas and Ginny Beresford; marshals, Cariellen Reeve and Mary Jo Flynn; song leader, Sharlene Stevens, and bulletin board, Susan Pigott.

February 29

MARILYN WELLER

Colorado College

Beta Omega has had a busy and successful year beginning with the pledging of 22 girls last fall. In October the pledges gave an informal dance for the entire chapter and shortly afterwards held a surprise early morning breakfast for the actives. In celebration of Halloween the Thetas and the Sigma Chis had a party complete with games and refreshments for the underprivileged children of the area.

We were pleased at the outcome of the Homecoming competition in November. Our float, built on the theme of the "Little Engine That Could," won first place in the women's division, and a pledge, Peggy Gould, was elected Homecoming Queen.

In scholarship our chapter achieved the highest academic average among the women's organizations on campus for the first semester. Also, two of our members, Martha Healy and Janet Adams, have been elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Our annual dinner honoring scholarship was given on Feb. 4 at the lodge.

On Feb. 24, 22 girls were initiated into the chapter. We also have pledged six new girls for the second semester. They are: Betty Broadbent, Mitchell, S.D.; Sue French, Park Ridge, Ill.; Sally Green and Jean Ann Watson, Colorado Springs; Sally Wass, Williams Bay, Wis., and Anne Warner, Bala-Cynwyd, Penn. Officers have recently been elected and include Alice Altendorf, president; Sally Rambeau, vice president and pledge trainer, and Sally Moffitt, corresponding secretary.

Plans are now being made for our spring activities including the annual "Kite and Key" dance, our spring formal held with the Kappas.

March 2

JAN LYONS

Colorado State

Second semester got underway with the initiation of 16 girls. They are: Kathleen Blevins, Loy Callister, Frances Wolf, Jill Lair, Povy LaFarge, Jane Christopher, Mary Rebbeck, Jayne Lamar, Ann Talbert, Jeanne Klodt, Carol Roberts, Maurine Durkin, Jean Weatherby, Pat Williams, Irene Van Slych and Yvonne Lyster.

Besides new initiates, Beta Gamma has added three new pledges to their roll. They are Mary Ann Martin, Kremmling; JoAnn Smith, Florence, and Ann Lobenstein, Ogden, Utah.

We are especially proud of our scholarship. We finally gave up our second place position when we topped the campus with our last quarter's average, 2.83, a 3. equalling a B.

Thetas joined with the Sigma Nu's for the annual Hesperia Sing and won first place in the mixed division. We also copped second prize in the women's competition.

On Feb. 16 we held our dinner dance which carried out a Valentine's Day theme. The decorations consisted of pink and silver hearts and cupids.

Winning individual honors this quarter are Phyllis Brown, Povy LaFarge and Madelyn McClave who were elected treasurer, secretary, and junior representative respectively to the AWS council. Congratulations are also in order for Marian Light who was an attendant to the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi.

New officers are Chardelle Hayward, president; Carol Lou Hughes, vice president; Marilyn Rubin, corresponding secretary; Marilyn Maxwell, recording secretary; Doris Johnson, treasurer; Ruth Pyke, rush chairman; Marian Light, scholarship chairman; Madelyn McClave, social chairman, and Joan Price, house president. Sally Moore will serve as president of Panhellenic for the coming year.

February 28

ANN WATT

Connecticut

Are we proud at Gamma Zeta? Yes, and it's all because of our wonderful new pledge class of 23 girls. They are: Barbara Bayard, Margaret Carroll, Claire Christian, Kathleen Connelly, Elizabeth Coughlin, Judy Dacunte, Constance Duford, Claudia Flecker, Shirley Fosdick, Fay Garvin, Charlene Gesell, Gayle Harbour, Barbara Jarmel, Audrey Mills, Pat Morris, Beverly Potter, Mary Lou Reis, Margaret Romefelt, Janet Sheldon, Audrey Wesson, Susan White, Pauline Wolf and Catherine Woods.

With such a terrific pledge group we had to have a pledge dance, and we did just that on Jan. 4 at the Indian Hill Country Club in Newington.

On Feb. 21 we were challenged to a gigantic snow ball fight by Kappa Kappa Gamma. We were very busy in the afternoon building a fort and supplying it with ammunition—snow balls. After the battle, which only lasted for ten minutes, ending with the Thetas as victors (???), we all were invited to the Kappa house for coffee, cake and a songfest.

Sunday afternoon, Feb. 24, we held a formal tea for our "second" mom and housemother, Mrs. McNelly.

Panayota, our Greek war orphan, has been very ill in the hospital with pneumonia, and the Gamma Zetas have helped finance her expenses through this period of illness.

We are all proud of Beverly Mann, who was elected president of Phi Upsilon Omicron, honorary fraternity in home economics.

At our recent elections the following officers were chosen: Jean Buckley, president; Shirley Watts, vice president; Ann Muus, recording secretary; Kay Wagner, corresponding secretary, and Florence Wiberg, treasurer.

Denison

Every student dreams of school's being dismissed during exam period, yet never actually expects such an occurrence. This year Denison was forced to close school for a week in the middle of exam period due to the breakdown of the heating system. Needless to say, many students were jubilant.

Back from vacation, with exams over, the Beta Taus held their annual Founders' Day-Scholarship Banquet. At this banquet, prepared and served by those girls who lost in the competition for high averages, the achievement and service rings were presented to the two girls who had given the most of themselves to Theta. The sophomore ring, given to Joyce Lostro last year, was presented to Janet Wright. Marty Shorts gave the junior ring, which she had worn for the past year, to Peg Eagan. The scholarship bracelet, representing the greatest improvement in academic average between mid-term and semester grades, was given to Helen Ferenbaugh from Sally Adelberger.

The next big event was the pledge formal, held on Washington's Birthday. The theme was "Dark Town Strutter's Ball," and the living room was enhanced by blue-blackened windows, silhouettes of the pledges on the curtains, and a hat check booth. The sophomores cleaned up Saturday morning, even serving breakfast to the pledges; the juniors cooked the dinner, and the seniors served and gave the skit, complementing the theme with black face and "y'all."

Denison university's Sweetheart of Sigma Chi is Jean Lockhart of Beta Tau chapter. Jean has been entered in the contest to choose the national Sweetheart.

Beta Tau has been working hard on a skit for the all-school Bonds of Friendship show. Last year the Theta skit won the fraternity and sorority competition, and as a result the Thetas received a cup which is to become a tradition. We are out to keep the cup again this year. The show is March 14 and 15 and is presented in conjunction with the all-school charity drive.

March 8 is the day set by Denison's Panhellenic for initiation. Beta Tau will gain 28 new members that day: Charlotte Burrer, Jerusha Busken, Edna Bogardus, Susan Sholes, Judith Whaley, Christine Adams, Dawn Anthony, Nancy Barber, Emily Beardshear, Mary Berry, Christine Doner, Mary Drake, Jane Geyer, Katherine Gibbs, Susan Goodell, Janet Gordon, Ann Hazlett, Nansanna Hunt, Ann Huntington, Mary Ann Ingraham, Beverly McClaren, Helen MacSwords, Linda Smythe, Jean Taylor, Lucille Van Domelen, Barbara Vega, Nancy Walker and Ann West.

At the banquet that night, the scholarship ring, representing the highest average of the pledge class, will be given to Mary Berry. A gift will go to the girl who turns in the best pledge book, and a ring will be awarded to the pledge who is thought by the chapter to have most nearly fulfilled the ideals of her pledgship. All the Beta Taus are anxious to welcome these 28 new members.

MARY BROOKS

DePauw

Starting the second-semester social season rolling at DePauw is Golddigger's Ball, a girl-ask-boy affair. As in previous years we entertained our dates at the house with a formal dinner and a skit by the juniors before the dance. But this dance is a special occasion in another respect also. It is the only time during the year that men are permitted upstairs, so for weeks we prepare. Then, after a complete tour of the house, and a careful inspection of the rooms, we go en masse to the dance at the Union Building. It's different and a lot of fun, too!

State Day, March 8, is always an occasion that we look forward to, for then we have an opportunity to meet girls from the other Indiana chapters. At the luncheon in Indianapolis we catch up on all the news from the other schools, in addition to meeting the new pledge class of each chapter.

At a banquet on March 9 we shall honor our new initiates, who are: Carla Andrews, Mary Condon, Anne Cockfield, Cindy Coyle, Marty Dehner, Mac Denbo, Sue Healey, Lalla Boswell, Jane Mills, Marilou Morrill, Fran Russell, Sara Seger, Naomi Sjostrom, Janet Sage, Cecilia Walker and Mary Ellen Wheeler.

No less thrilled are we with our four new pledges! Joan Fearing and Sally Nelson, Cincinnati; Judy Mayer, Maywood, Ill., and Sara Seger, Sturgis, Mich., are now sporting the pledge pin.

It won't be long before the electing of the '52-'53 officers either! This year we are initiating somewhat of a committee system, with a senior in each office and a junior assistant or deputy. With this new system we are hoping to train the junior classes so that they may feel better prepared to lead the house in their senior year. However, the junior deputy will not necessarily move into a certain office—she will assist the first year and be qualified to help, if necessary, the following one. We feel certain that this revised organization will contribute to a smooth-running house.

On Feb. 26 the campus elected next year's officers of the Union Building, and we were proud to find that Sandy Spangler is the new vice president. The Union is the first organization to change officers.

The two Alpha chapters here, Alpha Chi and Theta, are joining forces once again on March 28 for the annual Alpha Duo. The semi-formal dance will be held at the Theta house.

Beta Kappa's loss of four Thetas at mid-semester graduation was soon lessened when we gained five top pledges during rush week. The graduates included Beverly Bell, Patricia McCarthy, Sarah McCoy and Judy Schlamp. We were especially proud of Judy Schlamp when she was one of two persons on Drake's campus to be elected at this time to Phi Beta Kappa.

Among the new girls wearing Theta pledge pins are: Julie McDonald, Titonka, and Elizabeth Booth, Judith Firkins, Marilyn Music and Patricia Shurtleff, all of Des Moines.

Our Founders' Day luncheon was held at the Hotel Savery. A highlight of the program was a review of Iowa Theta chapters by Mrs. Ruth Stuhr, national editor. Entertainment and songs were provided by Beta Kappa chapter.

We were honored recently by an unofficial visit from Mrs. Ellen Hofstead, Grand Treasurer.

NORMA A. NELSON

Duke

Soon after the second semester opened, Beta Rho's members found themselves in the gay whirl of late winter dances, parties and dinners. Starting off the social season on Feb. 9 was the annual Golden Triad pledge dance held with Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pi Beta Phi. Wearing white and carrying carnation-trimmed red Chinese fans, the pledges of the three sororities were formally presented during intermission.

The following week, actives shared an evening with Durham alumnae to commemorate Founders' Day. The banquet held at the Bartlett House was followed by a short ceremony celebrating not only the founding of Theta nationally but also the installation of Beta Rho as a chapter 24 years ago.

Next on the semester's agenda was the "King of the Beasts" campaign in connection with the Panhellenic Dance on Feb. 22. Each sorority sponsored and actively publicized a candidate as their favorite "beast," hoping to have him reign at this jungle-theme dance. Dan Peacock, S.A.E., was chosen as Theta's standard bearer, and the resulting campaign which included such publicity stunts as carrying lacrosse sticks to advertise Dan's athletic prowess and wearing miniature peacocks was fun for the whole chapter.

Initiation is set for March 9 when the chapter roll will add these 14 new names to its list: Cookie Ballard, Kim Barrows, Meb Benton, Sue Brooks, Trish Brown, Judy Clarke, Ann Henson, Cinny Impey, Sally Jenkins, Judy LeFever, Gail McGiehan, Marilyn McKeeman, Jane Perry and Jane Rutherford. After the ceremony will come the traditional formal banquet.

However, all is not parties and banquets. A hard fought inter-sorority volleyball tournament resulted in a third year winning streak for Theta. As a continuing pledge project, the new initiates are each giving two hours a week to do volunteer work with the Duke Hospital Women's Auxiliary while many of the older actives are there as Nurses' Aides.

Theta names in the news this semester are: Molly Bixby, chairman of Religious Emphasis Week; Lee McGill, candidate for vice president of Student Government; Joan Gummels, candidate for W.A.A. president, and Lelia Harmon, newly elected president of Social Standards Committee.

*George Washington

So busy a month is January at George Washington that again this year scholarship-conscious Thetas were obliged, in order to maintain their academic standards, to decree a policy of refusing all social invitations extended to us as a chapter. The exception to this policy was, of course, Founders' Day, which brought us together with Maryland's Gamma Mu chapter and alumnae at the annual luncheon. Located as we are in Washington, whose importance attracts people from all sections, Founders' Day provides an opportunity for us to meet Thetas from all over the country and to appreciate more fully our national traditions, as well as those to whom we owe the building and preservation of those traditions.

The appointment of Mrs. Blackburn to the post of District President is proving a delight to Gamma Kappa. Our first meeting with her was at a coffee hour at the rooms, where we were delighted with her charm. When she attended the meeting at which we elected officers for the coming year, however, she impressed us even more by the clarity of her perception. We look forward to years of growth and profit under her leadership.

On Feb. 16, ten new Thetas were initiated into our chapter. They are: Barbara Bailey, Pat Cowherd, Carol Dunn, Charlene Gaylord, Alice Haney, Nancy Hopkins, Mary Milton, Ann Reid, Barbara Shugart and Ann Simpson.

Constance Atkins was pledged during February rush.

Recently installed major officers are: Barbara Elam, president; Nancy Abbot, vice president; Carolyn Billingsley, corresponding secretary; Eileen McNally, recording secretary, and Laura Larrick, treasurer.

Incidentally, retiring president Barbara Benner now serves as president of the Panhellenic council.

Twenty of us are busily practicing for the Panhellenic Sing to be held March 26. Our selections are "He's Gone Away," a folk tune, and a Theta song to the tune of "Moonlight Madonna," written and arranged by Lauris McKee Beyda, one of our own Junior Alumnae.

The week before Christmas holidays was an eventful one for Gamma Delta chapter. The pledges gave the chapter a beautiful television set for a Christmas present.

Winter rush saw Gamma Delta add three new pledges to the fold. They are Joan Hutchens, Dallas;

Joyce Lawhorn, Woodbury and Patricia Pannell, Atlanta.

On Jan. 11 we were glad to have as our guest, Mrs. James Hofstead, Grand Treasurer. Mrs. Hofstead had been in Atlanta that week to install the new Atlanta Alumnae chapter.

On Jan. 29 we welcomed 19 new initiates into the chapter. They are: Adrienne Armistead, Joan Burns, Nancy Church, Sally Frost, Jilia Gay, Jean McDonald, Charlotte Rife, Dorothy Laird, Frances Atkinson, Carol Cole, Patricia Embry, Daisie Jane Robinson, Elizabeth Foster, Regina Gleason, Shirley Gleason, Virginia Ann Hulme, Emily Rutland, Jane Hannah and Carol Skeels.

At our Founders' Day Banquet, held Jan. 27, we presented the Model Pledge Cup to Nancy Cooney. This year for the first time the Clo Freeman Scholarship Pin was awarded, and was won by Dorothy Laird. Mrs. Freeman, an alumna of Rho chapter, who died last year, asked that her pin be used in some way by this chapter. The chapter decided to award this pin each year to the pledge with the highest average.

New chapter officers for next year were elected this month. They are: Lucille Richardson, president; Marian Bell, vice president; Frances Mock, corresponding secretary; Alice Cole, treasurer; Judith Adams, editor, and Eleanor Ellis, house manager.

Carolyn Proctor was recently chosen sponsor of Pi Kappa Alpha at Georgia Tech.

Next week Lucille Richardson, Nancy Cooney and Marion Bell will be voted on for top offices of Women's Student Government Association.

The Women's Athletic Association has just elected Joan Kemp, president, and Judith Adams, secretary. Judith was also elected secretary-treasurer of Zodiac, women's sophomore honorary society.

Theta placed fourth among the sororities on campus in scholarship for fall quarter according to a recent announcement by the Dean of Women's office.

Yvonne Barmon of Seattle and Rita Schroeder of Moscow were pledged to Beta Theta chapter on Feb. 6. Pledging was followed by a formal banquet. At dinner, Feb. 18, the girls gave pennies equal to their age for the Friendship Fund.

"Under the Big Top," a circus dance, was given in the house Feb. 29, with everyone dressing in appropriate circus costume. The house was decorated with multi-colored streamers, balloons and posters. The fireplace was decorated as a cage in which a huge stuffed tiger was placed. Programs were the shape of clown faces.

March 2 the chapter had initiation for Shirley Bates, Barbara Bonner, Elinor Coleman, Joyce Danielson, Dorothy Diehl, Florence Garrett, Judy Haltom, Rosella Kelly, JoAnn Luck, Nancy Neveay, Caryle Pence, Jane Querna, Rosemary Rowell, Donna Shively, Gwen Weeks and Margaret White. A formal banquet followed. The Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity presented each new initiate with a corsage of violets, and the house gave each one a yellow carnation tied with a black ribbon.

Newly elected officers began their duties Feb. 18. President is Ann Royer; vice president, Jean Royer; recording secretary, Lois Ann Saunders; corresponding secretary, Mary Kay Johnson; treasurer, Elizabeth Eames; house manager, Ann Morgan, and social chairman, Dorothy Sylvester.

The long awaited day finally arrived Saturday, Feb. 23. Yes, 14 new kites have been added to Delta chapter. They are: Sue Anderson, Jerry Bond, Suzanne Cuthbert, Jeanne Dickson, Doris Drew, Judy Hoggatt, Mary Kent, Kathryn Kile, Evelyn McCreery, Susan Olmstead, Galey Shappert, Elizabeth Starr, Gloria Steger and Donna Wilson. We ended the wonderful day with an initiation banquet.

The week before initiation we had our Founders' Day banquet where we were entertained by six Thetas who were here 50 years ago. They told us something about our chapter history and some of the hilarious times they had in the "good old days."

Spring fever has already hit the U. of I. and especially the Thetas. We are beginning to make plans for our spring formal. We are hoping that it will be as successful as our two dances last semester. One of these dances we made into a "Kiddie Party," and the boys came in knee pants and the girls in little pinafores. We had a grand time playing jacks and jumping rope, and we did do a little dancing, too. The other dance was our Christmas formal. It was just as much fun, for each girl filled a stocking for her date. Many of the stockings were made out of oil cloth and decorated with Santa's face, and one girl even knit a stocking especially for the occasion. They were filled with such things as bubble gum, squirt guns and toy soldiers.

Fun isn't all that's on our minds. We have already started to work on our grades because every semester we have a scholarship contest. Each girl is paired with another girl who has about the same grade average as she has, and the averages are compared again at the end of the semester. Then we have a banquet where the girl with the better average eats steak and the other girl has to eat beans. It's quite a challenge and loads of fun. In speaking of grades, we want to say how proud we are of Donna Wilson and Kathryn Kile who made Alpha Lambda Delta, the national freshman scholarship honorary.

We are also proud of Irma Schickedanz who has the big job of display advertising director for the Daily Illini and of Judy Hoggatt for being elected secretary of Freshman Council. Marilyn North is one of the finalists in the yearbook beauty contest, too. The winners will be announced later in the spring.

Congratulations are also in order for our new officers. Frances Little is president; Berry Berryhill, vice president; Louise Drechsler, treasurer; Nancy Rynearson, corresponding secretary, and Laura Donagher, recording secretary.

*Indiana

As usual, the nerve-racking ordeal of final exams terminated our first semester here at Indiana, but all was not in vain. The many hours of study brought forth a mighty 2.02 average; a two-tenths increase over last semester.

Immediately following a brief vacation we entered again the "never-to-be-forgotten Land of Rush." On Feb. 14 we took 14 wonderful Valentines into the fold of the black and gold. They are: Jennifer Byrne (daughter of Charlotte Reyer Byrne, Gamma), Indianapolis; Rosemary Dwyer (sister of Nancy Dwyer King, Beta) and Barbara Clark, both of Gary; Paula Feltus (sister of Martha Feltus Walstrum, Beta) and Carol Hagen, both of Bloomington; Eleanor Schenkel (sister of Janet Schenkel Schacht and Marjorie Schenkel Wells, both of Beta), Huntington; Janet Thomas (daughter of Eileen Mahony Thomas and sister of Sharon Thomas, both of Beta) and Cosette Coffman, both of Fort Wayne; Susan Way (daughter of Clara Reynolds Way, Beta), Shaker Heights, O.; Sharlee Cissell, South Bend; Madge McKiernan, Western Springs, Ill.; Sherrill Rumbaugh, Terre Haute; Shirley Sermersheim, Jasper, and Nell Smith, Lafayette.

Five of these girls, Barbara Clark, Cosette Coffman, Rosemary Dwyer, Madge McKiernan and Janet Thomas, made Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman honorary for women.

Beta is busily participating in activities on campus. Nancy Hyatt is chairman of the Marriage Conference, sponsored annually by the Y.W.C.A. Mary Kolb and Gretchen Benzel are assisting her.

Fran Foland, Jan Nicely and Jan Froeb are serving on the Student Foundation, which was appointed by President Wells to plan the "Little 500" bicycle race. Profits from the race go to working students' scholarships. We are planning to support the Beta Theta Pi team on race day, May 10.

Representing Theta as finalists in the Arbeauty queen contest are Pat Fagaly and Val Chellew. They are among the 11 girls who will have their pictures in the 1952 Arbutus. We are also proud of Nancy Lou Dickens, crowned the Sweetheart of Alpha Tau Omega.

Patty Wilson has received much praise upon her singing of the leading role of Irene in the opera, "A Parfait for Irene." Also the girls in Jordan River Review have been practicing daily for weeks in preparation for opening night, March 5. The Review runs for eight performances, in which we'll see Harriet Stafford, Marilyn Halleck, Patty Wilson, Paula Feltus, and Sharlee Cissell.

Plans are made for State Day, March 8, to be held at the Claypool Hotel in Indianapolis. We Beta Thetas are practicing diligently on our songs, "Chimes of Indiana" by Hoagy Carmichael, and "When Day is Done" by Patty Wilson, chapter member. Following State Day, Mrs. James Hofstead, Grand Treasurer, will visit us, and on March 9 we are honoring Mrs. Hofstead with a tea. About 300 invitations have been sent to the administration, and department heads of the university, presidents and chaperones of all housing units, Bloomington Theta alumnae, parents, and those of Bloomington who are or have been related to Beta Thetas.

Anxiously awaiting the day when they will become initiates of Beta Omicron are 17 girls. They are Colene Alexander, La Donna Ballard, Sheryl Crawford, Mary Jean Holroyd, Loa Lunan, Barbara Moore, Barbara Myers, Mary Mulhall, Sally Rehnberg, Ann Spinharny, Marian Schick, Jean Wood, Gerry Bender, Charlotte Boecker, Sonya Goering, Sue Sutherland and Donna Vicara. The chapter is proud to present Sue Sutherland with a jeweled pin for having the highest grade point in the pledge class. Her average for last semester was 3.66.

Sally Irish was elected president for the new term. This fall Sally was chosen Hillcrest Queen, Hillcrest being the largest dormitory for men. She attained the highest grade point possible last semester, a four point. Among her many activities, she is chairman of Women's Orientation for Fall of 1952, and is very active in hospital work connected with the YWCA.

Peggie Lutz, our past president, will run for president of University Women's Association this spring.

March 13 we are planning to honor Founders' Day with a function with the alumnae. There will be speeches and discussion at a gathering for dessert.

Our social life has been busy since Christmas with exchanges and a Theta party. We have been entertained by the Sigma Chi's and the Sig Ep's with dessert exchanges. Around Valentine's Day we had a buffet dinner followed by dancing or bridge.

Beta Omicron welcomed a new pledge this week. She is Jean MacDonald from Dubuque.

College scholastic records announcing first place to both the Theta actives and pledges was the highlight of winter quarter.

Gamma Pi's own scholarship trophy for improvement was awarded to Delores Luethje at our Founders' Day tea. In connection with Founders' Day, we held an open house in honor of the opening of the new addition to our house. Mrs. Ellen Hofstead, Grand Treasurer, was present for the tea and open house.

Ten girls were pledged and three were initiated this quarter. The new initiates are: Julie Fargo (daughter of Janice LaBric Fargo), Ida Oderkirk and Harriet Parsons.

New pledges are: Marilyn Andreson, Mason City; Phyllis Bryant, Evanston, Ill.; Barbara Carlson and Jean Gordor, Sioux City; Jeanne Hall, Lamoni; Alice Hammond, Nashua; Ardis Johnson, Des Moines; Kahla Roberts, Perry; Elsa Schmidt, Winfield, and Judith Tyler, Lenox.

Social graces, service, friendliness, and active-pledge relations were stressed during our Theta Week held in February. The purpose of the week was to emphasize Theta ideals.

Individual honors came from a variety of sources. Jane Payseur was honored for her four years of college activities by being elected student body president for the college annual Woman's Day.

Lee MacFarland was selected as outstanding woman athlete for the year at the same time. One of Lee's athletic accomplishments was in the pingpong tournament. A finalist in the singles, she teamed with Nancy Neff to win the doubles.

Nancy and Lee were paired together again when they were selected as outstanding science seniors at the science students winter formal. Also, Lee was elected to Phi Kappa Phi, scholastic honorary, and Nancy to Mortar Board.

Patricia Warrington was named to Psi Chi, psychology honorary, and Ann Heath was elected to Omicron Nu, home economics honorary. JoAnn MacRae received double honors, being accepted to Delta Phi Delta, art honorary, and to Phi Upsilon Omicron, professional home economics honorary.

Both actives and pledges gave firesides during the quarter. A number of records for the house were collected from the pledge "Record Party."

A "Leap Year Party" with opposing male and female political candidates, left little doubt in our minds as to who won the election.

Now that it's almost spring, we of Kappa chapter can look back upon the winter season with many pleasant thoughts. One of the most memorable events was our Thanksgiving buffet. We invited our Washburn sisters of Alpha Psi chapter to be our guests at K. U. and join us for dinner.

About the first real mark of the Christmas season was made by our tree-trimming party. We brought our dates back to our house after classes one day, and put them to work, helping us decorate the Theta house in accordance with the yuletide spirit. Then, as a final celebration before vacation began, we entertained with our Christmas dinner dance.

The holidays per usual were short-lived, and the return to school meant preparation for finals. But, it was not long till we were back into the swing of things. A trophy was added to our case when the Theta volleyball team took first place in the women's division.

Soon after the new semester had made its debut, we gave our annual winter formal. This year it was called King Neptune's Court, and was decorated on an under-the-sea theme.

Near the middle of February we pledged Joann Guthridge, a junior from Parsons.

On Founders' Day, our local alumnae were our guests for dinner. The celebration was made even more memorable when the alumnae presented a skit honoring Thetas who had been in the fraternity 50 years or more. One of our guests was Miss Agnes Emery, first editor of Kappa Alpha Theta.

This semester likewise found Kappa chapter girls assuming their roles in campus activities. Nan Mosby was pledged to Jay Janes, the Kansas chapter of Phi Sigma Chi, women's national pep organization, and Louise Swigart is the new president of Delta Phi Delta art fraternity. The Young Republicans elected Dorothy Wandling secretary, and Jerre Hesse is a Senate member of Associated Women Students.

Gamma Iota welcomed Hannah Wallace of Huntington, W. Va., as a pledge between semesters. The chapter also congratulates the 16 pledges initiated on Feb. 16 and Martha Bach and Vicki Shaver for the perfect 3.0 standings they made last semester.

On Feb. 27, Gamma Iota chose the following officers: president, Mary Strode; vice president, Marjorie King; corresponding secretary, Maureen Mefford; recording secretary, Ginny Todd; house president, Jane Bartlett; social chairman, Rosemary Foster, and rush chairmen, Kay King and Zoe Parker.

The chapter, in cooperation with the other sororities, entertained the patients at the Veterans' hospital on Feb. 12.

Gamma Iota was fortunate to have Mrs. Loveless, our district president, as a guest a few weeks ago. She left many happy memories with us. The intramural sports program is in full swing with Kentucky's Thetas right in on swimming, basketball, and softball.

Bess Clement has been selected to represent the state at the Washington cherry festival.

Another highlight of this semester was Mrs. Brandriff's visit with us. We were especially pleased that she was here for our annual Founders' Day banquet.

At the traditional Best Loved Banquet, Joan Arado, Cary Atwood and Martha Benton were selected as three of the four honored senior women. Another Alpha Psi member especially active in Lawrence activities is Marilyn Donahue who was recently named vice president of the Lawrence Women's Association. Marilyn is also recorder of the Women's Recreation Association. Barbara Brunswick, Emmy Bunks and Georgia Hester have roles in the play, "House of Bernarda Alba," a production of the Lawrence College Theater.

We are all looking forward to our spring formal which is to be given jointly with the Delta Gammas in April.

Informal rushing, initiation, election of officers, guests for dinner—the Gamma Mu chapter has been in the midst of all of these all at the same time. But we are attacking everything with renewed vigor after the vacation between semesters.

First of importance was initiation, which was held at the home of Jaimie Long. We now have eight more members: Lane Carl, Geraldine Cook, Sally Lynde, Elizabeth McDaniels, Mary Purcell, Elizabeth Skeats, Ruth Warren and Cynthia Brown. After initiation the big sisters took their little sisters out to dinner to celebrate the happy occasion. The next day, Sunday, we went to church together and returned to have a banquet in the house.

After much discussion we chose the following for our top offices: president, Helen Dedicott; vice president, Mary Lou McKinley; treasurer, Muriel Crowson; corresponding secretary, Ann Houghton; editor, Lorraine Jorgensen, and rush chairman, Eleanor Hodgson.

In January all of the Gamma Mus attended the Founders' Day banquet in Baltimore. It was a fine opportunity for us to become better acquainted with our Baltimore alumnae chapter as well as to refresh our feelings for what Theta stands for.

All has not been routine work, either. We have had several desserts with the fraternities on campus, general get-togethers in the living room to sing songs in the hope that we can again have our voices somewhat in tune for the Interfraternity Sing in April, and many other happy times just going to college. The informal rushing has been fun in itself, for we seem to enjoy our parties as much as the rushees—eating spaghetti at Luigi's, wearing the bright Hawaiian shirts, and so forth. We know that we will soon have some additional new pledges to help build our chapter.

With the start of second semester, Gamma Eta plunged into rushing again, its highlight was our French Cafe party. We transformed our dining room into a dimly lit cafe. Small candle-lighted tables and soft French music added to the continental atmosphere. The girls wore costumes ranging from sailors and peasants to glamorous Parisiennes and Apache dancers.

Massachusetts didn't have snow for Winter Carnival, but the snow arrived a week later so we had our snow sculpture competition then. Our sculpture, "Afternoon of a Fawn," won second in the women's competition. The woodland group included a stag, doe, fawn and rabbit. While a proud stag stood at the forest edge, the doe drank out of a real pool and the fawn watched a little rabbit perched on a stump. The music, "Prelude to the Afternoon of a Fawn," played softly and at night revolving colored lights picked up the scene. We grew very fond of our family group and missed them when they had to melt away.

The next big event here at Gamma Eta is our Pledge Formal which will be held at the Roger Smith Hotel in Northampton. We are planning a house dance the night before the formal to make a really big weekend. We plan to use a French motif for the house party, too.

Things are just beginning to settle down to normal in the lives of the Thetas at Ann Arbor. Yes, life here in the last two months really has been a whirl. Exams came right after Christmas, and then came the biggest event of the year, rushing.

Rushing this year was held between semesters, which gave us plenty of time to practice skits without interfering with studies. This year we initiated a new party to begin our rushing program . . . a heaven party. All mattresses and pillows and everything fluffy were piled into the living room to give the effect of clouds. St. Peter and his angel friends entertained and introduced the rushees to "Theta Heaven."

At the end of the two weeks, all our work was rewarded as we got 17 pledges. They are: Mary Ann Alexander, Port Huron; Jean Davenport, Jackson; Helen Goetz, Pelham, N.Y.; Joan Henritz, Cincinnati, O.; Connie Hilton, Ionia; Fanchon Hollis and JoJo Lichty, both of Ann Arbor; Mary Jane House, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Joan Irving, Fort Wayne, Ind.; Marilyn Martin, Detroit; Peggy Perkin and Judy Seaborn, both of Birmingham; Pat Raney, Bowling Green, O.; Sue Reynolds, Glenview, Ill.; Bernadette Schildberg, Greenfield, Ia.; Marge Shroer, Washington, D.C., and Cathy Wilson, La Grange, Ill.

Our pledges, along with all the other pledge classes on campus, have some interesting projects they intend to carry out. One of these is a blood donors drive. All the pledge classes are combining for this three-weeks campus project which is to take the place of hell week and at the same time promote unity among the different sororities.

With the Junior Girls' Play coming up in less than a month, the junior class is so busy we hardly ever see them except at meals. Di Harris is chairman of the script committee; Mary Marsh, Dibby Ewing and Magee Hult are in the cast; Nancy Scott is on the make-up committee; Terry Matheson designed the programs; Ann Stuart is on the stage committee, and Joan Henritz is co-chairman of scenery.

One of our seniors, Joanie Robinson, walked off with the first prize in the Gulantics Revue, a campus talent show. Joanie sang with the glee club quartet. Pat Skinner, who had the lead in "Joan of Lorraine," did an outstanding job, receiving favorable reviews in newspapers both in and out of the state of Michigan.

Rushing began winter term with a flourish of activity. Parties started Jan. 2 and ended Jan. 14, the day of pledging. Sally Hoffhines had the busy job of rush chairman. Dee Means, Joan Bratton, Marilyn Ringler and Jill Rogers planned the parties. Among those planned were a circus party and a perfume party. On Jan. 14, we proudly pledged 25 girls. Our bids were answered by sophomores Noreen Fulgenzi, Mary Moore, Janie Schimmel, Pat Skilliter, Nancy Jo Smith and Louise Stribley and by freshmen Johannah Beurmann, Virginia Carson, Mimi Cummsky, Marley Ederle, Jessie Fisselmann, Josette Fischer, Janet Hampton, Nancy Hannah, Marilyn Hart, Pat Hoedle, Janice Matthews, Ann MacMeekin, Marilyn McBride, Heather McPhail, Mattie Munger, Barbara Ringler, Janet Richter, Peggy Rulison and Kate Sundberg.

The chapter's Founders' Day celebration was an alumnae-college affair in the form of a dessert. After eating the cake that the alumnae furnished, we had entertainment. To wind the party up we had the traditional ceremony, sang Theta songs and presented our pledges who received corsages.

The social event of the term, next only to the J Hop, was a Sadie Hawkins party we held here at the house. Making use of the extra day of the year, the date of the party was Feb. 29. Nancy Burhans was chairman of the affair. Costume prizes were won by Gloria MacFarland and Joan Bratton.

Sally Hameline had a leading role in the term play, "Rose Without a Thorn." She is also directing a play now.

We ended the term with the election of officers. Sally Hoffhines will be installed as president. Gloria MacFarland will become our vice president. Other newly elected officers are: corresponding secretary, Dee Means; recording secretary, Joan Bratton; treasurer, Janis Neel; assistant treasurer, Marilyn Bintz; house president, Gail Laffey; Panhellenic representatives, Marilyn Ringler and Janet MacDougall; pledge trainers, Sally Gibson and Doreen Fonte; editor, Sue Henderson; chaplain, Joan Smith; librarian and archivist, Joan Swanton; stewardess, Joan Harris; activities, Monsie Hoedle; historian, Joy Pomeroy; sports chairman, Judy Straight; social chairman, Elaine Shemanske; song leader, Mary Park; head marshal, Dodie Howes, and art directors, Nancy Burhans and Karen Foster.

Founders' Day banquet was held Feb. 13 at the chapter house. The following awards were given at this time: most outstanding senior, Ginger Bunker; outstanding freshman pledge, Myrna Fisher; best upperclass pledge, Marge Meredith; highest pledge scholarship, Marie Chism, and the highest active scholarship, Pat Fuson. The pledge awards were made by Miss Elizabeth Spalding and the senior awards by Mrs. James Hourigan. Entertainment was provided by the 1951 pledge class, which had composed a song.

Excitement is running high over Grand Convention, with several girls planning to attend.

New pledges include Gay LaChapelle, Denver, Colo.; Marilyn Mason, Chillicothe, and Rosalie Meluney, St. Joseph.

We are now working vigorously on a one-act play to be given the first part of March. It is a humorous skit entitled "Women In The Army."

Janet Dancy was a finalist for the Homecoming Queen at Westminster college. Charlotte Shields is one of the five finalists for Engineers' Queen, and Verna Dean Lawrence was chosen as one of the two finalists for "The Ideal Secretary," sponsored by the Business and Public Administrations School.

Our District President, Mrs. Avis Green Tucker, visited us for four days during the latter part of February. As usual, her visit was enjoyed by everyone.

Alpha Mu's basketball team is undefeated with one more game to play before going into the finals. We are planning to enter swimming and badminton. At present we hold second place in University intramurals.

After a short winter rush we came out on top with Jean Gowan of Belgrade and Gwen Golson of Burke as our two new pledges. Several weeks later we initiated 16 girls: Joan Stokan, Arlene Hoiland, Cherie Brodsack, Gayle Gibbons, Virginia Hays, Pat Moore, Janet Harper, Paula Dybdal, Janet Olson, Nan Barney, Elizabeth Raftery, Betty Lee Means, Georgiana Coppedge, Janet Bailey, Dorcas Snyder and Lou Marylin Vierhus.

We are proud of our two Thetas who received top honors this quarter at Matrix Table. Irene Stritch was chosen as the most outstanding senior girl at Montana State, and Mary Joan Tascher was named most outstanding junior girl. Marilyn Kintner was elected as secretary of the Associated Women Students, and Marilyn Foster as their new treasurer. New girls chosen for the women's ROTC group were Joan Stokan, Janet Bailey, Gayle Gibbons and Betty Lee Means.

We observed Founders' Day this year with a banquet for the alumnae and the chapter. The following day we attended church in a group.

Our queen candidate for Mardi Gras was Beverly Henne, with our concession being the usual sponge throwing contest. Also competing for queen titles were Marlene Cresien and Janet Bailey, finalists in the Miss Photogenic Contest. Ruth Rawlings, Pat Moore and Betty Lee Means were Sigma Chi Sweet-heart candidates.

Our winter quarter function was built around the theme of the "Black Kat Inn" with regular gambling tables, good food, decorations, dancing and entertainment.

With the hard work of Donna Persons as scholarship chairman, Thetas came out second on the University scholarship list for autumn quarter with a 1.69 average.

The spring semester is a busy one for Rho chapter. The first important event was our Founders' Day celebration which was followed by a dessert supper given by our Lincoln Alumnae club. We were pleased to have with us Mrs. Minnie Latta Ladd, one of the founders of Rho.

The Black Kat Kabaret, our annual formal dinner dance, was held on Feb. 2. Due to the hard work of our social chairman, Jane Fletcher, and to our wonderful chaperons, we enjoyed one of the nicest formals we have ever had.

On Feb. 4, 5, and 6, we enjoyed a visit from our district president, Mrs. Marvin Schmid. She gave us many helpful suggestions which were appreciated by the entire chapter.

Rumors of a new addition to our chapter house have become a reality. Plans are made and construction is scheduled to begin as soon as the weather will permit. We are all very appreciative of the hard work our alumnae building committee has done in our behalf. The addition will provide for a new chapter room, a day room for Lincoln girls, a dining room and kitchen, and bedrooms.

Congratulations were in order when two of our members, Elizabeth Gass and Harriett Wenke, were finalists for Typical Nebraska Coed. They were presented in a style show that was part of the annual Coed Follies. We also had a finalist for Inter-Fraternity sweetheart, Jane Fletcher.

Rho chapter was proud to initiate 24 members on March 15. They were: Jewel Claussen, Phyllis Colbert, Lee Ellen Creasman, Donna Elliott, Judy Flansburg, Mary Clare Flynn, Lois Gearhart, Eileen Gorman, Jane Haylett, Charlotte Hervert, Charlene Campbell Kiffin, Kay Kinsey, Barbara Lucas, Shirley Moore, Joan Roe, Patricia Savage, Ann Skold, Penelope Sloan, Diane Smith, Marilyn Stanley, Susan Stoehr, Carroll Swift, Bridget Watson and Mary Ann Worral.

At the sixty-fifth annual banquet which was after initiation, the officers for the following year were announced. Our new president is Susan Porter and our vice president and pledge trainer is Martha Lee Miller.

We are now looking forward to Ivy Day which is held on May 3. This is the occasion of the song competition between organized houses; therefore, we are practicing hard every day. It is also the occasion of the masking of Mortar Boards, so excitement will reign throughout the remainder of the year.

Starting off the new semester, Beta Mu initiated eight new members: Joan Williams, Evelyn Nelson, Ilene Boffinger, Charlyne Olsen, Sharon Thompson, Vickey Vickery, Marilyn Wittwer and Jackie Frazier. Sharon Thompson was our outstanding pledge, achieving a grade point average only a few points below a straight "A."

In December our chapter held two parties, one a Christmas formal and the other a Christmas party for nine children from a local orphanage.

We were proud of our members during the campus blood drive in which the University of Nevada set a national collegiate record. Beta Mu's members, all that were physically capable of doing so, contributed one hundred per cent. Besides giving their blood, many girls aided in recruiting donors and helping with publicity.

Winter ski carnival was held on campus the end of February. All sororities had inside decorations, planned by Vanna Grant, which followed the theme, "South for the Winter."

Chapter elections were held the last week in February and our new president is Mardelle Leonasion.

This same week our spring pledge dance was held and our pledges gave an afternoon party for the other pledges on the campus.

These past few months have seen many girls receive honors. Our president, Gypsy Jo Bennett, and former president, Sue Ann Stephens, both made the Who's Who list; June Northrop is on the Arts and Sciences Dean's Honor Roll; Barbara Goss was asked to join the social science honorary, Alpha Kappa Delta; Jacqueline Cox is the Student Council secretary; Mary Ann Mitchell was chosen first Attendant to Homecoming Queen; Marie York was first attendant of Delta Sigma Phi Dream Girl, and Sue Ann Stephens is on Student Court.

February 24 was the happy day for these five initiates: June Northrop, Jacqueline Eisele, Marie York, Martha Bown and Barbara Brown. There was a dinner party after initiation, honoring our new actives.

This semester rush gave us four new pledges: Burdine Brush, Midland, Tex.; Lois Purinton, Gallup; Louise Grimes, Estancia, and Sally Stephens (sister of Sue Ann Stephens), Baltimore, Md.

This year one of our faculty friends, John Poore, asked us to make dolls for the blind children at Alamogordo. We made 25 dolls and their clothes. We dressed them to represent a comic character. These dolls were made to specifications for the facilitating of the children's handicap.

At Christmas time, we, along with the Pi Phis, caroled three of the hospitals here in Albuquerque. We were greeted warmly and sent letters of thanks from the hospital staff.

Stunt Night this year will find us acting out the creating of a Campus Queen. The theme follows a fairy godmother who helps the campus clohopper turn into a queen.

March 15 is the date of our Founders' Day banquet, which is to be held in our new house for the first time. It is also in honor of our retiring chairman of the advisory board, Mrs. Lewis Korn.

February 29 was our first house dance. The theme was a Record Dance, meaning that the girls and their dates were to come dressed to represent the titles of records.

North Dakota

One of the nicest events for Alpha Pi at the beginning of the new semester was our Founders' Day Banquet held on Feb. 13 in the ballroom of our new Student Union. We are all proud of Les Melby who was presented with the scholarship award.

Thetas are beginning to be experts at the art of ping-pong since our pledges completed their project of converting an old storeroom into an addition to our recreation room.

Two new additions to our pledge group are Maryanna Melby of Oakes and Janice Culp of Dickenson.

Initiation will be held on March 9 for 12 girls. They are: Elaine Allen, Peggy Arnold, Luanne Arnold, Virginia Brett, Luanne Burman, Janice Barden, Elizabeth Granger, Beverly Lee, Les Melby, Marilyn Meyer, Sherry Schjeldahl and Joanne Thompson.

Spring elections brought in Gerry Brightbill, president; Dorothy Jarman, vice president; Heinie Burfening, recording secretary; Ruth Nelson, treasurer; Joanne Frostad, house manager; Luanne Arnold, corresponding secretary; Betty Ouradnik, rush chairman; Audrey Swedeen, social chairman, and Adele Stewart, scholarship chairman.

Thetas continue to be in many activities with our president, Gerry Brightbill, also newly elected as president of Phi Upsilon Omicron; Heinie Burfening as treasurer of Delta Psi Kappa, and Maryanna Melby as a new pledge of Phi Chi Theta.

We added our bit to the annual Winter Carnival with Betty Ouradnik as attendant to the Winter Carnival Queen.

Dorothy Jarman is busy these days for she was selected as Theta Flickertail Follies Chairman while also holding the lead in the play, "Dream Girl," to be presented in March.

We have welcomed two new pledges to our group: Carol Roehrich and Mona Chambers.

Our pride and joy these days is the huge trophy that stands on our piano, which was awarded to Beverly Ewald when she was chosen "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi."

The SAE chapter has announced that two Thetas have been chosen as candidates for their sweetheart. They are Barbaranell MacMurray and Marlys Neset.

The pledge class deserves a lot of praise for the marvelous term party that they put on for us. The theme was the "Gingham Ball" and it proved to be just the thing for a winter party. The novelty of wearing a frilly cotton in the middle of the winter gives the feeling of informality. We highly recommend this kind of party to the other chapters for their pledges. It not only gives them the feeling of having an active part in Theta, but also gives them the much needed experience in the art of putting on a successful party.

Our chapter will be richer by eight members soon when we will initiate Barbara Bitters, Beverly Stegge, Ann Ensrud, Carol Roehrich, Sally Lohman, Avis Hoeft, Irene Crosby and Mona Chambers.

February 3 was, the big day for Tau when 29 members were added to the chapter. Our new initiates are: Lu Ann Ayers, Anne Billington, June Camphausen, Mary Clingman, Celia Cole, Barbara Dahm, Beverly Dahm, Elise Deister, Carroll Driftmeyer, Isabelle Dryden, Nancy Feldon, Barbara Grimm, Nancy Hogue, Phyllis Johnson, Ellen Kaupke, Stephany Keim, Jane Kuhlman, Susan Lindberg, Elizabeth McCabe, Catherine McGill, Elizabeth McGuinness, Shelia Murphy, Joy Pavlik, Cynthia Peirce, Joanne Pennington, Jean Selby, Marjorie Smith, Diane Staples and Sara Weir. The long awaited ceremony was climaxed by a formal banquet of celebration.

A television show was the theme for the entertainment of the annual pledge party on Feb. 1. Nancy Feldon directed the entire production which was comprised of various comedy acts. The Phi Dels were hosts to the Thetas at a buffet dinner on Feb. 10. Our winter formal was held at the Electric Club on Feb. 22.

Faith Burwell and Pat Yates headed scholarship fall quarter by achieving straight "A" averages. The entire house average was "B—" and Theta ranked second among all the sororities determined by the number of girls off probation.

Since Christmas quite an additional number of girls have become interested in campus activities. June Camphausen, Barbara and Beverly Dahm, Cinny Peirce, Joanne Pennington and Marcia Wade are new members of Lorelei, the honorary swimming club. June Camphausen, Barbara Grimm, Phyllis Johnson and Jeanne Weir were recently accepted by Wildcat Council. Kay Longenecker has been named head of the Women's Council of the Red Cross, and Pat Yates is publicity chairman of that organization. Claire Sorrells is co-publicity chairman of the Sophomore Cotillion and promotion manager of the Syllabus.

The new officers who will lead the chapter in 1952 were elected on Feb. 25. They are: president, Jean Converse; vice president, Marge Nelson; house president, Sally Hornbogen; rush chairmen, Sally Jo Houston and Helen Arnold; recording secretary, Alice Tucker; corresponding secretary, Lynn Steiner; treasurer, Jody Rasmussen; scholarship chairman, Pat Yates; social chairmen, Nancy Feldon and Barbara Westrate; Panhellenic representative, Kay Longenecker; activities chairman, Claire Sorrells; athletics chairman, Marcia Wade; courtesy chairman, Jo Nell Alcorn; editors, Sally Miller and Sally Mylander; music chairman, Jane Collins, and assistant, Nancy Brehm; archivist, Karen Muller; historian, Anne Billington; marshal, Sue Mair, and assistants, Nancy Hogue and Joan Winton; chaplain, Faith Burwell.

January 11 found the Theta house filled to the brim with bridge players attending the annual card party given by the Mothers' club, which is their main fund-raising project.

Everyone loves costume parties so we decided to have a Kiddie House Party. We danced to the music of Joe Weisberg and during intermission played London Bridge and Drop the Handkerchief. To complete the picture, we had balloons, bubble gum, lollipops and drumsticks. Numerous stuffed animals were used as table decorations. We discovered long-forgotten little girl dresses and wore pigtails and large colorful bows. A stuffed animal was awarded to the person with the most clever outfit.

We left January 26 open to attend our annual Founders' Day banquet which was held at the new Ohio Union.

Our pledges are busy with cute stuffed animals which they are making for underprivileged children. Long hours of practicing for campaign skits, too, paid off for the pledges. Shirley Smith and Sally Davies were on the Court for Pledge Princess and Freshman Queen, respectively.

Speaking of skits, the Thetas are one of the finalists for Greek Week Stunt night. We are all going to turn out in full force and we hope to bring home a shiny new trophy.

We are also proud to have Marjorie Pfeiffer on Makio Queen Court.

The Alpha Gamma chapter has stressed activities this quarter. Marilyn Unckrich was elected vice president of W. S. G. A., and Mary Weaver was elected sophomore representative for the same organization.

Every winter quarter we anxiously await Greek

Week and all its gala activities. Greek Week is a week set aside to further relationships among the sororities, fraternities and other groups on campus. Our Joan Dawson did a wonderful job as chairman of Greek Week.

Last quarter proved that social life did not interfere with our grades. We placed second in scholarship among all the sororities on campus with a point hour of 2.78. Doris Bergen was awarded the pledge scholarship bracelet for receiving a four point.

March 1 is almost here and this means three new initiates: Doris Bergen, Lois Bond and Maralyn Davies.

Winter quarter means election of officers and congratulations are in order for: Mary Stoddart, president; Rose Marie Moorman, vice-president; Joan Donley, corresponding secretary; Margaret Bateman, recording secretary; Maxine Scarff, social chairman; Carol Stevens, treasurer; Jane Wheeler, rush chairman, and Mary Lou Emmons, house president.

The climax of winter quarter was our annual Kappa-Theta formal which was held at the Fort Hayes Officers' Club on Feb. 21.

GLORIA HOWDON

*Ohio Wesleyan

If Betty Locke Hamilton, Hanna Fitch Shaw, Betty Tipton Lindsey and Alice Allen Brant had been in Delaware in the middle of Feb., they would have smiled on the Gamma Deuterons. For on Sunday, Feb. 24, the chapter celebrated not only a late Founders' Day banquet, but also the thirtieth anniversary of Gamma Deuteron's campus existence.

Mrs. W. F. Loveless, district president, and former district president, Mrs. William Carlisle, addressed the group assembled in the Memorial Union banquet hall. Evelyn Long Mauck, also a Gamma Deut alumna, was toastmistress. Two members of the original Ohio Wesleyan Theta pledge class, Mrs. Allan C. Long (Dorothy Crates) and Mrs. D. G. Allen (Katherine Timmons) were present.

The banquet was preceded by the initiation of three girls: Loretta Hooser, Sally Kimmel and Nancy Cox.

In Jan., three sororities combined talents for the largest inter-sorority dance on campus. The Trionym, so called because it is sponsored by the Thetas, Kappas and Pi Phis, centered around the theme of a winter wonderland complete with a white sleigh and large snowdrops.

The wizard was really a wizard when 27 new pledges were added to the rolls following our "Land of Oz" rush party in Jan. The sides of the little white Theta house bulged the next Sunday when the campus came to view the new pledges at an open-house. The town alumnae also feted the "black and gold" pledges at a dessert party.

The new pledges are: Maribeth Amhrein, Battle Creek, Mich.; Gay Amhrein, Garden City, N.Y.; Kathleen Cannon, Florence Murphy and Mariette Schneider, all of Washington D.C.; Mariana Gosnell, Jane Murrin and Mary Ann Joseph, all of Columbus;

Jo Ann Harding, Columbiana; Helen Hynes, Washington, C.H., Ohio; Patricia Kelley and Carrie Lou Pollock, Del.; Carolyn Krueger, South Bend, Ind.; Diana Martin, Muskogee, Okla.; Mary Kathryn Murphy, Charleston, W.Va.; Constane Nanck, Janet Peat and Marjorie Smith, all of Cleveland Heights; Patricia Nichols, Cleveland; Mary Lu Paxman, Wiloughby; Jacqueline Servies, Chatham, N.J.; Winifred Shaw, Bethesda, Md.; Anne Shirk (grand-neice of Hannah Fitch Shaw) and Jane Kleinmann both of Cincinnati; Nancy Smith, Piqua; JoAnn Stahl, Miamisburg, and Joan Thomas, Greenfield.

During the rushing season, Thetas took time out by spending overnight at Butler lodge, the University farm for student recreation. The night was spent in games and singing, while breakfast was cooked rustic style.

Dotty Huff reigns supreme as campus beauty. For the second consecutive year she has been selected by visiting bandleaders to be spotlighted in the Ohio Wesleyan yearbook. This year, the choice was made by Blue Barron at the Greek Week dance; last year, Charlie Spivak made the same decision. In the past eleven years, Kappa Alpha Thetas have taken top honors in this contest ten times.

Other chapter beauties, Lyn Bachelder and Flo Murphy, have been selected as sponsors of the local R.O.T.C. units.

In the scholastic line, Thetas have jumped up the ladder again in competition with other Panhellenic groups. The annual "steak and beans" scholarship dinner was scheduled for March, when steak will be enjoyed by the upper half of the chapter's "brains," beans by the rest. Two Phi Beta Kappas were named in January, Helen Simester Long and Roslyn Seabury.

Giving pep to the basketball and football games this year have been our three freshman cheerleaders, Flo Murphy, JoAnn Stahl and Mariette Schneider. Beth Beattie, senior, has received one of the three awards offered by the athletic department for outstanding participation in women's sports. The cups for intramural hockey and basketball are now accumulating dust on the trophy shelf at the Theta house, after being awarded for the second consecutive year to the chapter.

Leads in the campus plays are now being held by Pat Kelley and Maribeth Amehein, as are positions on the campus radio station.

As soon as finals were over, Alpha Omicron celebrated the beginning of the new semester with our annual Theta Week-End. We started it Friday, Feb. 1, with a movie costume party, coming as characters in movies. Cora Bronaugh and her date, as "The Thing" and "The Other Thing," won the prize for the best costume. After dinner we had a showing of the film, "The Son of the Sheik," starring Rudolph Valentino, and most of us decided he was pretty good after all.

Saturday we had a wonderful lunch together and then had bridge and canasta contests in the afternoon.

That night at dinner we awarded the prizes.

On Feb. 8 we were allowed to offer bids, and we ended the day with two new pledges: Cynthia Dorwart from Muskogee and Joan Newton from Miami.

Sooner Scandals was held Feb. 29. Our theme this year was Insects Appeal. We had bugs of every size, shape and description, including ants, a caterpillar, jitterbugs, butterflies, lightning bugs and a black widow spider. Margaret Long directed it, Caroline Clarke was in charge of costumes and Phyllis Williams did the sets.

Olive Hallmark Abbot won the individual act prize. She sang "Italian Street Song."

Margaret Long was chairman of Now or Never Week over the campus, and she and Pat Delaney are running for student senate from the college of arts and sciences.

Three Thetas were named as BWOC's during the annual Career Conference. They are Sara Louise Woods and Dorothy Darrough, seniors, and Ann Richards, junior. Sara Louise and Dorothy were each selected as one of the twelve outstanding senior women nominated to receive the Letseizer award to be presented later in the spring.

ANN RICHARDS

Oklahoma A & M

Any time next year you will be able to find several copies of Who's Who In American Universities lying around at 1323 College. You see, three Beta Zetas were chosen for this honor recently. The girls are Barbara Blakely, Dorothy Williams and Edna Mae Henderson.

The Theta pledge class scores again! This year, as in the previous two years, our pledge class was first on the campus in scholarship with a 3.1. The members made the mistake of challenging the pledges on grade averages with a party as a stake.

Azalia McDonald recently came home from the Pi K A dance as the Pi K A Sweetheart. Another queen living among us is Wilma Laughlin, chosen Agronomy Queen, which will automatically make her one of the candidates for Aggie Princess, the queen of queens of an Aggie campus.

It seems that we're not lacking in politicians, either. Jane Weaver, Beta Zeta's new vice president is Panhellenic representative to the Student Senate. Another senator is Margie Burton. Margie was also recently elected to the Student Union Governing Board.

On March 2 Beta Zeta initiated its 29 pledges. They are: Marjorie Adams, Gerry Adamson, Sue Bradberry, Pat Brown, Winifred Bean, Sally Bevens, Sue Derhammer, Barbara Dolezal, Pay Dryden, Mary Emery, Lou Ann Fisher, Joanne Goff, Edna Mae Henderson, Pay Horton, Jannette Joullian, Patty Kalow, Carol Ketcham, Carolyn Labadie, Ruth Ann McCuiston, Helen Madamba, Sue Morey, Lavenna Mounger, Connie Peck, Nancy Pitts, Tommee Lynn Powers, Shirley Stoll, Stevie Thompson, Carol York and Marianne Zaloudek.

A jeweled pin is always given to the pledge with the highest scholarship. This year, three of our pledges will receive the honor pin because all had 4.0 averages. They are Sally Bevins, Edna Mae Henderson and Nancy Pitts.

At the Panhellenic spring reception, all the women's fraternities on the A & M campus will be honored to have Mrs. J. F. Crawford, Theta's Grand Vice President, as their speaker.

New Beta Zeta officers are: Ann Heffner, president; Jane Weaver, vice president; Floree Harrison, corresponding secretary; Margaret Cross, editor; Louise Noble, treasurer; and Jacque McKinney, Panhellenic delegate.

Brand new officers for Alpha Xi chapter are: Carolyn Silva, president; Fran Gillmore, vice president and pledge trainer; Ann Strowger, corresponding secretary; Dewey Reed, recording secretary; Jerry Pearson, editor and public relations; Mary Waddell, treasurer; Sally Haseltine, rush chairman, and Joan Walker, scholarship chairman.

The weekend after our house dance, Kite Klub, Jan. 26, honoring the pledges, 12 new Thetas were initiated. Those joining the Theta circle are: Ann Bankhead, Ann Blackwell, Dorothy Kopp, Ann Gerlinger, Betty Gillmore, Josie Boylen, Joan Honeywell, Ann Hopkins, Florence Wright, Ione Scott, Norma Heyser and Tricia Lawrence.

Much to the surprise of all, our bowling team of Susan Fitzgerald, Fran Gillmore, Ann Lawrence, and Nancy Miller won the women's bowling competition and brought home a mammoth trophy.

The other "athletic trophy" of the year was earned by Barbara Burke and Marilyn Patterson who were proclaimed Best Bridge Players on campus.

In our campus activity column: Dorothy Kopp was elected sergeant-at-arms of AWS in the recent election; Sally Haseltine is to be junior advisor of the YWCA, with Fran Gillmore as public affairs chairman and Caroline Silva as co-ordinator on the senior cabinet; Susan Drummond was tapped for Kwama, sophomore women's honorary; Liz Waddell, Mu Phi Epsilon pledge (music professional) Deanne Smith, Kappa Rho Omicron pledge (radio honorary) and new drama producer for KWAX; Fran Gillmore, a member of the Honor Code committee; Ashle Dixon, sergeant-at-arms of WRA (Women's Recreation Association), and Gerry Pearson, chairman of Red Cross Drive.

Francis Gillmore was selected as general chairman for "Operations Politics," a mock political convention being held on the University of Oregon campus for the first time this year.

Spring term is just around the corner with promises of picnics and many fun-fests. Several of our members are planning to attend Convention this year at Sun Valley where we play part-hostesses. We'll be looking forward to meeting you Thetas whom we have been reading about in these past issues of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Beta Epsilon started a busy winter term by adding five new pledges to its fall term group. They are Barbara Berry, Corvallis; Cleo Caldwell, Klamath Falls; Ruth Leon, Portland; Barbara Neiger, Nyssa, and Norene Wells, Woodburn.

One of the highlights of the term was a successful Dad's Day. We had a grand time entertaining our dads at a banquet in their honor at the house, and then taking them to the Oregon State-Bradley University basketball game.

We teamed up with the Delta Chi's during International Week, when we all gathered in our living room for an informal and enlightening discussion of the conditions in India, given by an exchange student from that country.

Winter term initiation added the following 15 new members: Priscilla Beacon, Anna Branham, Grace Ann Jackson, Wilma Anderson, Patty Daum, Billie Hargraves, Marian Ure, Janet Woolcutt, Carolyn Colby, Nancy Rearden, Marcella Murray, Betty Pinner, Carol Hansen, Sally Johnson and Ann Ridings.

Beta Epsilon is proud of Audrey Daum, Nancy Halladay, Joyce Gittinger and Janet Ruggles who were tapped recently for Kappa Delta Pi, education honorary. Nancy Halladay was also chosen for National Collegiate Players. Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honorary, recognized three juniors who maintained a 3.5 grade point average or better during their sophomore year. They are Audrey Daum, Nancy Halladay and Jeanne Alford.

Another Theta honored this term was Carolyn Colby who won the annual Sigma Delta Chi trophy for the outstanding beginning journalism student. Patty Daum was elected secretary for the Associated Women Students for the coming year.

Newly elected to fill posts on our chapter cabinet are: Janet Ruggles, president; Nancy Halladay, vice president; Audrey Daum, corresponding secretary; Barbara Smith, treasurer; Janet Baker, scholarship chairman; Jeanne Alford, editor; Beverly Robbins, marshal; Marlene Little, recording secretary, and Carolyn Sparks, chaplain.

With the dining room transformed into "Kite Klub," we entertained our dates at a formal dinner preceding the annual Mortar Board Ball. We had much fun concocting appropriate corsages for the occasion.

Other points of interest on the term's agenda were exchange dinners with Alpha Tau Omega, and Phi Delta Theta and the faculty dinner to which we invited all our favorite faculty members.

With winter term almost over, we are getting ready for our annual ski dance, when we prop our skis against the wall and dance in stockinged feet. We always look forward to this dance, with the schottisches, popcorn, and cozy lodge atmosphere that make the evening complete.

JEANNE ALFORD

Pennsylvania

Seven girls said farewell to their pledge days on Sunday, March 2, and Beta Eta is proud of these new initiates: Mary Alberty, Joan Bisceglia, Ann Fogarty, Helen Hobbs, Marcia Kitzmiller, Joan Knipe and Ann Russell. A banquet was held following the initiations, during which Ann Fogarty was awarded our scholarship ring with an average of 4.1. Marcia Kitzmiller came in an extremely close second with an average of 4.096.

Congratulations are due one of our recent pledges, Kay Connor, who was chosen as the University of Pennsylvania's Interfraternity Queen, winning over candidates from all other houses on campus.

The weeks preceding initiation have been busy ones for us. Theta mothers planned a wonderful dinner for Thetas and their fathers at the house on Feb. 14. The combined houses of Sigma Chi and Delta Kappa Epsilon gave a party for us on Feb. 19. Interfraternity basketball games, the pledge show and loyalty pledges, have given us a full schedule.

Our philanthropy projects have included contributions to the Nephrosis Foundation and attendance at a very successful alumnae bridge party for the benefit of the Logopedics Institute.

Kay Connor of Beta Eta chapter was Interfraternity Queen at the University of Pennsylvania.

A round of activities is planned for the near future. March 7 will be the Panhellenic Ball held at the Bellevue Stratford. March 20 starts interfraternity weekend, highlighted by an interfraternity ball at the Broadwood Hotel. The interfraternity variety show in Houston Hall on April 1 will include a skit by the Thetas. On April 22 we are hoping to keep last year's number one position as winner of the Panhellenic Song Fest.

Connie Norris, our delegate, is eagerly looking forward to Grand Convention in Sun Valley. We all wish we could go!

March 2

RUTH KINDT

Pennsylvania State

Beta Phi added 12 new initiates in Feb. They are: Nancy Bailey, (Junior Class Queen), Barbara Cole (who has a 2.90 All-College average), Juliana Fees, Joyce Gardiner, Nancy Hagy, Nancy Hopkins, Nena Moses (daughter of Sarah Jobson Moses of Alpha chapter), Mary Pettigout, Winifred Rhoad, Emilie Tyler, Barbara Wilson, Nancy Higgins (sister of Mary Higgins Lyford and Ginger Higgins Suhey, both of Beta Phi chapter) and Anne Webber (daughter of Ruth Warner Webber of Beta Phi chapter).

We are also indebted to these new initiates, for their pledge project which they presented to the chapter was a new, modernistic bookcase made out of bricks and lumber in the color scheme of our suite. Even though they, complete with swords and water pistols, routed us out of our beds at 5:45 A.M. one Sunday morning to "unveil" the piece, they made up for all the resentful yawns by serving us coffee and doughnuts later.

The chapter was entertained again this semester by many fraternities. Alpha Sigma Phi invited us to an informal dance with the Jay Kay Trio, a popular combo of national fame. The Phi Delta Thetas had us over for a series of skits and refreshments. Beta Phi has just accepted for the third time in a row the honor of serving as hostesses at the annual faculty reception of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Other parties include one given by Pi Kappa Alpha at an informal dance, with impromptu entertainment.

Future plans for the chapter are giving all Beta Phis happy anticipation. Our annual Theta pledge dance will be held in May at the Phi Kappa Sigma house, with dinner before at the Nittany Lion Inn. Right now, rushing is taking up much of our time, but it seems to have gone so quickly since we have put new ideas into effect, mostly with the help of Barbara Mulloy, our tranfer from Beloit. Marian Whiteley is the new Panhellenic rushing chairman, and she has kept us straight on just what we can and cannot do.

Election of officers also took place in February. Some of the new officers are: president, Joan Yerger; vice president, Joan Hutchon; recording secretary, Solveig Berg; treasurer, Janet Herd, and editor, Bernadine Fulton.

In sports, too, Beta Phi excels. Kappa Alpha Theta and the Co-operation House have been named co-winners of the Women's Recreation Association participation cup for the fall semester, leading 30 teams, including sorority, dormitory and independent groups, in intramural participation.

February 26

MARIAN WHITELEY

Pittsburgh

Formal rushing is now over at the University of Pittsburgh and we are certainly proud of the results! Alpha Omega pledged nine girls who are: Helen Franklin, Irene Marsico, Janet Fiorucci, Sherry Graham, Peggy Miller, Nancy Dangerfield, Dolly Console and Marion Reich, all from western Pennsylvania.

The pledging of these girls climaxed a full semester of informal rushing and one weekend of parties. Our Panhellenic rushing system is so designed that each sorority holds two consecutive parties on Thursday night, one Friday night and one Saturday night. In this way, a freshman has an opportunity to visit four different houses.

On Thursday evening, the Thetas and their rushees went to New Orleans for a "Mardi Gras" party. Our living room was transformed into a courtyard for the King and Queen. Basin Street lead to the Cafe la Theta, where "imported" talent provided top entertainment. Champagne (in the form of gingerale), candlelight and masks gave an authentic touch to our Cafe.

Our Friday and Saturday night party took on a more serious air when the girls went to a beautiful Winter Wonderland. There, in a glowing, starry heaven, the rushees learned of our history and heard our songs.

Right now we are anxiously awaiting the results of the Panhellenic scholarship competition. Our chapter has a very high grade average of 2.2 (based on a 3-point scale). Each girl helped to bring the over-all grade up, but Catherine Dempsey, scholarship chairman, deserves special mention for her constant challenge and encouragement.

Alpha Omega still carries pleasant memories of the Founders' Day luncheon celebrated on Jan. 19 at the University Club. It was wonderful to see so many Thetas gathered together. I'm sure we all benefited from Mrs. Hogate's talk on "The State of Theta."

Spring is just around the corner, with all its activities. An innovation on our calendar for this year is a faculty reception which we are co-sponsoring with Phi Gamma Delta. Each Theta and Phi Gam will invite one member of the faculty for a buffet supper and informal get-together on March 19. If this idea is a success, we hope to make this a regular part of our year's program.

The first week in April is Greek Week on Pitt's campus. The Inter-Fraternity and Panhellenic councils have planned a program of conferences, discussion groups, an outstanding speaker, IF-Panhel Sing, a progressive dance and a picnic. With the purpose of promoting brotherhood, leadership, scholarship and better understanding among fraternity and non-fraternity people, Greek Week is campus-wide in its appeal and participation.

The main event in Pitt's spring schedule is Festival Week—this year from May 12 to May 17. The theme for 1952 is "Quo Vadis Pitt" or "Pitt-y the Romans." Plans for a carnival show with Phi Delta Theta are underway and some blueprints for a float are in the making. Since Festival Week includes a carnival, float parade, sweepstakes, openhouse and the main ball, it's no wonder that we've started working already!

The climax of Theta's spring social calendar will be our annual spring dinner dance on May 29. On this night the graduating seniors are honored with small gifts, while the outstanding girl in Theta and outstanding senior in campus activities are given special awards.

CARROL SMITH

The Alpha Chi Thetas ended last semester with the Founders' Day banquet on Jan. 19. Two of Alpha Chi's charter members, Misses Felina Palmer and Edith Tumble, were honored. Katie Neff, a member of the 1951 pledge class, received the pledge class scholarship award.

The first week of this semester was a busy one, with formal rush consuming many hours of hard work. But we all took one afternoon off for the annual Theta-Phi Psi snowfight. The next day, the Phi Psi's sent Puzzle, our housemother, a five-pound box of chocolates for her patience and sense of humor during the turmoil.

On Feb. 10 Alpha Chi put pledge pins on 19 girls. They are: Carol Argenta, Tudy Boor, Betty Brant, Margaret Carter, Marty Dittrich, Jane Fitch, Marilyn Hellerud, Dottie Hennis, Ann Jones, Marty Kellams, Suzie Mueller, Joan McMahon, Sara Pilemier, Barbara Reed, Joan Risk, Judy Sargeant, Sue Schaffner, Jeanette Somers and Lea Thomas.

Eight of the pledges made Distinguished grades (5 points out of 6 points possible), which is a very good record. We are especially pleased to have Jane Fitch as one of our pledges, for Jane is the grandniece of Hannah Fitch Shaw, one of Kappa Alpha Theta's founders.

This past Christmas season, our generous Mothers' Club presented us with a large television set. Many Thetas and their dates now spend all evening at the house watching TV. Also, our Fraternity Row neighbors, especially the Betas and Sigs, visit us and our video set.

This year we changed one of the study rooms on the second floor into a pledge room for our 19 pledges. It is now in the process of being decorated by pledges and actives together.

As this letter goes to press, we are all practicing our songs for State Day on March 8, and preparing for the alumnae dessert on March 13, honoring Ellen Bowers Hofstead, our Grand Treasurer.

Because of a flu epidemic, initiation was a little late this year but on March 23, twenty-five girls were added to the chapter rolls. The new members are Juanita Goodman, Marilyn Rosselot, Betty Bawden, Martha Bond, Barbara Bouldin, Jeannine Defries, Barbara Gibson, Rebecca Hargis, Hope Harrison, Alice Heinzen, Lucia Kyle, Margaret Linch, Patricia Laughbaum, Betty McGehee, Eleanor McKnight, Mary Miller, Tola Moline, Jane Moore, Sally Parker, Ann Pearson, Dorothy Rowland, Mary Lou Semtner, Nancy Teeling, Gayhlia Walter and Jane Ward.

At the initiation banquet, which was held at the Virginian Hotel, Mary Lou Semtner received the scholarship award and Mary Miller and Dor Rowland received the model pledge award.

When the Dean's List was announced we were proud of the eight Thetas who are "outstanding students." The girls are Margot Holt, Kathleen Willis, Peggy Anderson, Mildred Holladay, Betty Bawden, Jeannine Defries, Marilyn Rosselot and Mary Lou Semtner.

The Senior play, "One Foot in Heaven," was presented on Feb. 22. Kathleen Willis was a member of the cast and Margot Holt, was stage manager.

Beta Beta's Convention delegate is Shirley Abbott, and the alternate delegate is Pam Brown.

We are happy to welcome back Cynthia Spraggins and Jo Childs, who have re-transferred from Vanderbilt.

Barbara Davis, our outgoing president, conducted her last initiation Feb. 10 when Beverly Boothby, Nancy Corse, Joan Curtis, Kay Dunlap, Carol Farquharson, Gail Gearhart, Jo Lucas, Meg Mangam, Mary Marsh, Linda McIlvain, Louise Mullen, Mary Ann Smith and Monkey Swicegood joined our ranks. We still have one pledge, Cindy Ross. This brings our Gamma Gamma enrollment to the chapter quota of 30 members which is considered a large group at Rollins.

The Rollins Fiesta, a college scholarship endowment project, was of special interest to us this year because the Theta bingo booth cleared the highest amount for the fund of the campus social groups. Ann Boyle, whom the Independent Men nominated, placed second for Fiesta Queen. The queen is determined by the voting of the students and townspeople who contribute ten cents per vote.

The most important forthcoming special event on the calendar is the Theta-Sigma Nu college dance on March 8. The theme probably will be the Starlight Ball, influenced, of course, by the Theta Twin Stars and the White Star of Sigma Nu.

During the blood donor campaign Ann Boyle, Mary Ann Hobart, Kay Dunlap, and Sara Whitten contributed. The drive resulted in an exemplary number of donations from the college.

Mary Ann Hobart is now a member of Libra. Her formal acceptance took place before Christmas. Allee Chatham, our Mississippi golfer, has been elected as our official delegate to the Sun Valley convention. Sally Hopple, Louise Mullen and Beverly Boothby also are planning to attend.

The new appointments were filled February 27 by Louise Mullen, president; Allee Chatham, vice president; Linda McIlvain, editor, and other officers. February 28

The New Year began with a bang for Gamma Sigma members and pledges. We put by our books after a hectic examination week ending Jan. 24 and attended: the annual end-of-finals Blue Book Ball that evening where pledge Jody Coles was a candidate for queen; Jan. 25: Founders' Day Dinner; Jan. 26: wedding of member Ann Dawson, and Jan. 27: openhouse for the beginning day of rush week.

With registration for the spring semester going on at the same time, it was a real rush week. But we enjoyed it and ended up with six pledges: Carol Burr, Barbara Eagles, Marion Greaves, Dorothy Miller, Ann Taylor and Shirley Trent.

The next big event on our calendar was election of officers who are: Ann Cozens, president; Frances Walsh, vice president; Alicia Weeks, recording secretary; Marna Knox, corresponding secretary, and Jane Bowers, treasurer.

The week of elections our new president played the lead in a State College production of "First Lady," and we bought out the house one night in honor of her.

Initiation is scheduled for March 9. The new members will be: Joan Angel, Phyllis Caldwell, Barbara Camillo, Nina Curry, Phyllis Ekrem, Betty Dell Haines, Mary Ellen Hawe, Catherine Hogan, Barbara North, Joan Otis, Diann Penry, Susie Wight and Barbara Wolfe.

Mrs. Richard Taube, district president, will visit us March 10. We're excited, too, about our first visit from Mrs. French, grand president, early in April, and are planning a tea in her honor.

Our annual potluck Scholarship Dinner is March 17, and alumnae are invited. Money from the dinner and the cake auction afterwards is put into our scholarship fund. Installation of officers will be the same night, and then we'll hurry over to the Shamrock Shuffle dance to vote for our king candidate, Bob McFadden, a Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Alicia Weeks is Sigma Alpha Epsilon's candidate for the San Diego Junior Chamber of Commerce Yellowtail Derby.

Easter vacation will find us putting down the books and packing up swim suits and sun lotion for our yearly trip to Balboa, Calif. We won't get much studying done during the week, but we're expecting a wonderful time.

Other future plans include a joint-breakfast with the Chi Omegas, many rehearsals for the all school Spring Sing May 2 (We'll sing "You Keep Coming Back Like a Song"), a Mothers' Day Tea May 11, and our Spring Formal May 17.

We miss members Louise Wigchert, who transferred to U.C.L.A., and Marge Young, who now attends the University of Arizona.

Gamma Xi was proud to pledge 22 girls on Feb. 1. They are: Shirley Allen, Joan Babich, Peggy Bauer, Barbara Burke, Carolyn Burrell, Ellen Compodonico, Jo Ann Cardwell, Joan Derry, Suzanne Marie Dick, Pat Doherty, Theresa Fredreck, Doralee Griffey, Carol Hotchkiss, Karen Johnson, Doloras Jukich, Alberta Martin, Jone Pederson, Margaret Pfaff, Sonda Plehiers, Ann Renzel, and Pat and Portia Snow.

On Jan. 28 we welcomed two initiates into the chapter. They were Leslie Eastman and Leola Fusch.

Founders' Day was celebrated Feb. 23. Alumnae and college members joined in a banquet at the chapter house.

New officers this year are: president, Betsy Amick; first vice president, Elizabeth Hayes; second vice president, Alice Dougherty; fraternity education, Lynette Clary; corresponding secretary, Barbara Driscoll; rushing chairman, Katty Klove; Panhellenic representative, Nancy Childrey; house manager, Doris Callaghan; recording secretary, Charlotte Cuneo; treasurers, Mary Armanino and Diane Lovely.

The girls are now busy song practicing for the coming March Melodies at San Jose State in which choral groups from all of the sororities participate. The Thetas will sing "So in Love" and a Victor Herbert melody.

Our chapter enjoyed two exchanges last week. A hobo theme was carried out in an exchange with Sigma Nu and an early '30's theme highlighted an exchange with Phi Sigma Kappa.

Our new pledges were honored at a formal dance given at the Sequoia Country Club on March 1.

March 2

CORINNE KENNEALLY

South Dakota

Alpha Rho was proud to add to her roster of members on March 2 when we initiated 14 new members. The new initiates are: Mary Jean Dunn, Ann Louise Shaw, Doris Bensen, Veloy Hawkey, Patricia Rustead, Marilyn Benton, Dorothy Denoff, Jacqueline Hepper, Jane Gunderson, Pat Sather, Marilyn Werth, Dorothy Sievert, Janice Smith and Jean Gilbert.

On Feb. 5, Alpha Rho placed the chapter leadership in the hands of new officers. They are: Carol Witt, president; Trudy Hasse, vice president; Carol Clark, recording secretary; Barbara Barrett, corresponding secretary; Mary Holgate, treasurer, and Mary Jean Whiting, social chairman.

Founders' Day this year was celebrated on Feb. 5 at the Theta house with a dessert to honor the alumnae.

A recently honored Theta was Dorothy Grundler, who was chosen SAE Sweetheart.

Soon to be vying for honors in the coming Miss University contest, which is one of the preliminaries to the Miss America contest, are Barbara Croson and Ann Shaw. Barbara Croson was also chosen, along with Nancy Lees, as a candidate for the Delta Sigma Pi queen.

Recent positions on campus were awarded to Ann Paulsrud who was elected to the presidency of Womens' Athletic Association and to Sally Winter who is serving as managing editor of the college newspaper, the Volante.

Chapter members are busy at work preparing for the annual Stroller vodvil show. This year the Thetas are teamed with Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

The week of Feb. 18 the chapter was pleased to have as their guest, Mrs. Marvin Schmid, district president.

Omicron Thetas are off to a flying start this semester under the leadership of newly elected president, Joyce Newcomer, with a host of plans filling the calendar.

Other officers installed in February were: Ann Vierhus, 1st vice president in charge of scholarship; Marymar Newton, 2nd vice president in charge of pledges; Doryce Taylor, recording secretary; Nancy Taylor, corresponding secretary; Barbara Martin, treasurer; Mary Vidos, rush chairman; Sally Edgar, social chairman; Jane Tume, house manager, and Pat Kurtz, standards chairman.

The semester was started by filling our pledge quota of two with Janet Leichtfuss and Jacque MacLeod. Jackie is the third of three MacLeod sisters to pledge Theta, following Janet, now a senior, and Catherine, now Mrs. Bill Shattuck.

March 16 was a big day when we initiated 18 girls. A banquet followed the ceremony at which time awards were given to Barbara Goode as outstanding pledge and Shirlee Blalock for the highest grade point average, a straight "A."

Those initiated were Jan Anderson, Karin Bergstrom, Janice Birdsall, Shirlee Blalock, Peggy Borden, Diane Disney, Barbara Goode, Nancy Green, Connie Kurtz, Dori Lewis, Ann Mabee, Barbara McCoy, Lynn McLain, Maureen McMasters, Alice Painter, Joan Price, Emily Troster and Dorothy Welsh.

Also red letter days on the Omicron calendar were March 3 and 4 with a visit from our district president, Mrs. Grace Taube. Her two-day visit was filled with getting acquainted, conferences with the officers, advisors and corporation, a dinner in her honor, a tour of the campus and a conference with the dean of women.

Omicrons looked their prettiest on Feb. 23 at the annual Theta formal. Sixty couples started the evening at the lovely home of Ann Mabee. The formal and buffet dinner followed at the Miramar hotel.

We observed Founders' Day on Jan. 26 with a luncheon at the University Women's club with many UCLA Thetas, alumnae, and girls from other chapters.

On the social slate for the semester are a flapper party with the Delta Gammas, Betas and Deltas. Other exchanges we're looking forward to are Phi Delta, Sigma Chi, Phi Psi, SAE and the annual luau with the Kappa Sigs.

Apple polishing, good will, and good fun were on tap for our annual professors' dinner March 27 when each girl's favorite professor received an invitation. Two special dinners are planned for April. On April 7 we will have our scholarship dinner with duties of entertaining and serving allotted according to grade points. A date dinner will be held April 25 at the house.

High scholarship will have its reward at the dinner. The girl with the highest scholarship will have her name engraved on a plaque, and the girl with the greatest improvement will receive a small trophy.

Philanthropic activities received a boost when we raised money from a bazaar to adopt a war orphan. Also, girls visited the orthopedic hospital and entertained, and on Wednesdays and Sundays girls visit a polio patient. Donating blood in the recent campus Red Cross drive were Audrey Hemphill and Joannie Heineman.

Thetas are distinguishing themselves on campus, too. Janet MacLeod recently was appointed woman's editor of the Daily Trojan, campus newspaper. Jan Anderson is assistant director of a play, and Ann Vierhus was appointed Handbook editor. When Sig Eps chose their Queen of Hearts, Joan Winter added another star in her beauty title crowns by being an attendant, and freshman Shirlee Blalock reigned as Dream Girl at the recent Kappa Sig Stardust ball. Perhaps the busiest time of the year for Beta Sigma has been these last two months. We inaugurated the spring semester with a four-day rush period, the first day of which included an open house for all rushees. This affair was followed by three informal coke parties, and rush was concluded with two formal preferential parties. The culmination of all this was the formation of a new and promising pledge group including the following girls: Bedee Buckner, Pat

Touring the United States and Europe as Maid of Cotton is Pat Mullarkey of Beta Sigma chapter at Southern Methodist university.

Tippett, Jimmie Jean Warren, Joyce Philobosian, Doris Hamm and Mary Alice Rorbach, the first Beta Sigma daughter to enter our chapter.

The second affair of note on this semester's calendar was our celebration of Founders' Day on Feb. 13. The festivities included a banquet at the new sorority house, attended by some 200 Thetas representing a good cross-section of our sorority in this country. Toastmistress was Katherine Thornton Holt, and roll call of chapters was conducted by Eleanor Hall. After a brief but entertaining skit entitled, "Letters From an Old Trunk," tribute was paid to the ritual of Kappa Alpha Theta by Margaret Lawther Warren, Claudia White Puckhaber, Martha Scurry Potts and Josephine Duvall Scurry.

Another Theta celebrity has been added to the ever-growing list, this time as a member of Beta Sigma. Pat Mullarkey, a senior, was crowned 1952 Maid of Cotton in Memphis, Tenn., on Jan. 3. Pat is now touring the United States, after which she will go abroad for a tour of many of the European countries and South America. Pat will resume her schooling in the fall to receive her degree.

Nineteen fifty-two began with all the Chi Thetas studying hard for their exams. As a reward for their labor, during registration week the Theta library was graced with a television set to provide pleasant relaxation during the short vacation. The second reward for hard work found a majority of the chapter on Dean's list and an over-all house average of 1.86.

Shortly after exams were completed, a group of Thetas helped in the canvassing for the Mothers' March On Polio throughout the city.

Fathers' Day was a highlight of the year. The fathers arrived on a Saturday afternoon, and with their daughters had dinner that night at a nearby restaurant. Many of the group then went to the University basketball game. The fathers then returned to the Theta house for a pledging and initiation ceremony. The senior fathers received small pins in recognition of the occasion. After spending the night in the Theta house, the fathers were served breakfast and then attended church and chapel together. Sunday evening a buffet supper was served and entertainment was given.

Team, team, team we all yell for our basketball team which won all but one game this season under its captain, Jane Towe.

Dottie Grover reigned as queen with Dick Kazmaier as king over the Old Forge Winter Carnival.

Along with the winter spirit, Chi shovelled and packed and piled a huge block of snow from which the snow sculpture was to be cut. Just as the ice sculptors were cutting out a large box of popcorn with clowns playing among the kernels, the huge structure collapsed. So instead of the sculpture the snow-covered Theta lawn was decorated with four signs telling the sad tale: "We piled it up, but here it lay, s'no fair—snow gave way! S'no sculpture!"

Two more honors came our way with Sally Bingham and Dottie Grover being elected to the newly formed junior women's activities honorary.

Alpha Theta initiated 28 pledges March 3. New Thetas are: Ann Benbow, Linda Greathouse, Sue Johnson, Sandra Mayfield, Marian Marley, Carolyn Renfrow, Louise Rupp, Patsy Zoch, Ann Chipman, Marjorie Cramer, Carolyn Culbert, JoAnn DeLoach, Martine Floyd, Patty Gideon, Joan Gunderson, Shirley Hitt, Ann Hulse, Lynn Lovinggood, Nancy Romine, Sue Sanborn, Laura Sandifer, Judy Slatten, Alice Stamp, Bonnie Swem, Ann Venable, Carolyn White, Marian Williams and Mary Winsett.

At the initiation banquet March 4 best pledge honors were awarded Nancy Romine. Two "brainy" pledges tied for highest scholarship award, Patty Gideon and Marian Williams.

To climax the banquet, new officers for 1952 were announced. They are Ann Park Mayfield, president; Ann Robinett, vice president; Elaine Folley, scholarship chairman; Margaret Mosle, rush chairman; Mary Louise Ivey, social chairman; Carolyn Smith, treasurer; Bee Wright, house manager; Ruthie Fulcher, intramurals manager; Virginia Dyke, recording secretary; Pat McLain, corresponding secretary; Diane Lehman, senior Panhellenic representative; Sandra Mayfield, junior Panhellenic representative; Chili Chilton, editor; Ellie Luckett, activities chairman; Pat Miller, standards committee chairman; Sarah Lew Link, honor council chairman; Pat Hinds, parliamentarian; Mary Winsett, fraternity education; Carolyn Dickerson, chaplain; Ann Hulse, archivist; Louise Rupp, historian; Marjorie Benton, marshal; Dorothy McDonald, courtesy chairman; Nancy Romine, song-leader, and Shirley Hitt, pledge coordinator.

The first activity that Alpha Theta participated in this semester was Religious Emphasis Week. For our part, we serenaded several fraternities. The next activity was our annual retreat. This year we took ourselves and our speakers to Heart of the Hills Inn at Kerryville the weekend of March 8-9.

Topping the list of social activities was our formal on Feb. 22. We had Chinese decorations and "millions" of stags at the Austin Country Club for the dance. Then the next weekend we entertained the Delts with an openhouse, the first of a series planned for this spring.

Several fraternities have given us parties recently, among them the Sigma Chis and the Kappa Alphas. The KAs used the rather novel idea of "kidnapping" us for a surprise supper party. Phi Kappa Sigma and Sigma Phi Epsilon have invited us to parties in March.

We are already embroiled in making crepe-paper flowers for our float in the Round Up parade April 4. We won "best-all-around" float in the parade last year and are hoping the Theta "Raggedy Ann and Andy" float will win this year.

Celebrating its first birthday in February, Gamma Tau is well on the way toward gaining a notable niche in the realm of TU achievements and activities.

With the help of Mrs. Dorothy Ann Key, alumnae president, the chapter members surprised the pledges with a Christmas party at Mrs. Key's home. Carols, games and seconds of hot chocolate kept a lively holiday spirit for the first big shindig of the year. (Gamma Taus are especially conservative, with all eyes on a beautiful new lodge soon to be under construction.)

On March 9, fifteen girls will be initiated: Betty Abrams, Melissa Anderson, Barbara Burns, Jean Fife, Cammie Funston, Mary Lou Foster, Anna Lee Hughett, Frances Mitchell, Shelly Phillips, Eileen Sando, Barbara Smith, Suzann Snyder, Mary Ann Sherley, Patti Toler and Jane Weaver.

Second semester rush added two pledges for Gamma Tau: Jane Steil and Diane Sturdivant.

Shelley Phillips was selected Kendallabrum Queen by Russe ballerina Yvonne Chouteau. Shelley was chosen from over 170 entries.

Several Thetas may be found working on the campus publications. Betty Abrams, Barbara Smith and Mary Ann Sherley used their talents for the Collegian, weekly paper, while the yearbook is engineered by Mary Worden, assisted by Nancy Greaves, and staffers Sue Wilborn and Jane Steil.

March seemed to be chuck-full of events for TU Thetas. Besides initiation and election of officers, Ann Jones, Diane Sturdivant and Jere Thompson are swimming in the annual Aquacade show. March 22, members, pledges and dates will take a "Hobo Holiday," tramping out to the Green Parrot barn for dancing and feasting.

Judy Bryner Franks and Eileen Sando patiently are tuning up rusty vocal chords in preparation for Theta's second appearance in the annual Singfony contest, April 7. Also scheduled for April is the gala Hawaiian Lu Au party, complete with sarongs, pineapple, and colorful leis—a sure success.

Thetas applauded Cammie Funston for her capable portrayal of Topsy in "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

The highlight of this quarter for Alpha Eta was the winning of Stunt Nite. Our theme was "Women and Elephants Never Forget." We had a circus with monkeys, elephants, clowns, a bearded lady, snake charmer, fat woman, tight rope walkers and other circus characters. Every one in the sorority was dressed in some costume and in the skit.

Another important event was the initiation of the following girls: Ann Blair Adams, Carole Cole, Betty Brown, Mary Ashley, Wimberly Hickey, Martha Douglas, Elizabeth McKnight, Mary Ann Frederick, Kitty Garrett, Tennet Lee Griffin, Susan Coltrane, Callie Healey, Jean Higgins, Shirley Moore, Anne Isaacs, Margaret Patch and Bea Qualls. Following initiation the alumnae entertained the new initiates and chapter members with a buffet supper. We also voted to affiliate our three transfers, Betty Gardner, Jessica Barton and Faye Edwards.

One of our members, Merney Hodge, had the leading role in the Vanderbilt production, "Strangers In This World." Whit O'Bannon and Marianna Brown were also in the cast.

Alpha Eta is proud of her new campus officers because we won five out of the eight offices. Margaret Hayes was elected treasurer of JAAVU; Mollie Fisch is the new Social Standards president; Dudley Brown is the senior representative to the Women's Student Government; Elizabeth McKnight is the soph-more representative to the Honor Council, and Peggy Webb is the new Advisory Council president.

Other honors along the scholastic line were bestowed on Merney Hodge, Bet Volz and Carolyn Womack, the new members of Sigma Delta Pi, honorary Spanish organization. Wimberley Hickey is a new member of the Delphians, which is the freshman scholastic organization.

Our All Campus Tea on Feb. 22 was a great success. It was for all the girls on the campus, so we could get to know everyone better.

Congratulations to our new officers: Frances Brooks, president; Margaret Hayes, vice president; Dudley Brown, corresponding secretary, and Laetia Wenning, treasurer. The remaining officers will be elected next week.

Although the chapter suffered one broken leg and several twisted knees at the beginning of the semester due to the excellent skiing weather this year, Lambda copped a first place in the annual UCM winter carnival, Kake Walk. Our ice sculpture, which, when completed, was well worth all the hours which were spent on it, won a Kake and a first-place silver trophy with its theme of Kake Walk . . . Leap Year. It showed a girl leaping over the "2" in a big '52 in chase of a large Kake Walker. This festive weekend came to a close with an openhouse given by the Thetas on Sunday afternoon where the victory Kake completely disappeared.

This ice sculpture won first place for Lambda chapter at the University of Vermont's Winter Carnival. The slogan is "Kake Walk—Leap Year," and the girl leaping over the "2" in '52 is chasing the Kake Walker who is leaning on the "5."

Settling down to work right after victory, the chapter elected a new slate of officers. They are: president, Phyllis McCormick; vice president, Sue Wilson; rush chairman and Panhellenic delegate, Jean Millis; treasurer, Pat Carey; corresponding secretary, Nancy Hoyt; chaplain, Martha Riddell; recording secretary, Edith Marsh; marshal, Anne Crowley; scholarship chairman, Juanita Barcomb; editor and public relations chairman, Joan Richardson; social chairman, Jean Hawley; philanthropies and courtesy chairman, Peggy Van Noyes; song leader, Nancy McCormick; archivist and historian, Judy Edwards; deputy Panhellenic delegate, Helen Noyes; deputy rush chairman, Malia Dean; deputy social chairman, Jean Nuss; deputy marshals, Mimi Merrill and Judy Henderson, and house chairman and deputy treasurer, Betty Carnes.

Initiation and a banquet in honor of the initiates are scheduled for March 22. The following girls will be initiated: Juanita Barcomb, Claire Battles, Mary Bowman, Betty Carnes, Sheila Fay, Rae Hall, Hope Keeler, Frances Kidder, Joan Lucas, Jane Martin, Nancy McCormick, Gail Nelson, Rhoda Nicholson, Barbara O'Hara, Joan Richardson and Sara Upton.

After initiation Lambda will start preparations for the two big competitive events of the spring—the interfraternity sing and Junior Week.

After a wait of two months, members of Alpha Upsilon chapter will be more than glad to move back to the chapter house and have a home where chapter meetings, informal parties and rushing activities can take place in a normal manner.

Ever since the water pipe burst in the third floor bathroom during Christmas vacation and ruined the front section of the house, workmen have been busy plastering, installing new plumbing, repairing the floors, and papering.

And to top off the repair work, the alumnae association, which owns the house, gave the go ahead to redecorate the third floor of the house so everything will be in tip top shape for the next few years. The first and second floors had been redecorated during the past two summers, and the third floor was the project for the coming summer.

During the time that the house was being fixed, the house girls and Mother Howard were guests at the Zeta Tau Alpha chapter house on the campus.

March 22—that's the date when Alpha Upsilon will initiate nineteen pledges into the ranks of Kappa Alpha Theta. They are: Etta Allen Caston, Mary Ann Hindenoch, Winifred Denton, Beverly Ann Drake, Pauline Heckathorn, Phyllis Malkmus, Ella Mae Terhune, Gretchen Hart, Sally Stottler, Jane Warburton, Joan Bennett, Phyllis Brace, Ann Dooley, Darlene Jensen, Janice Kelly, Elizabeth Passman, Janet Pollom, Emily Scott and Patty Scott. Following initiation services, we have planned a slumber party. On Sunday morning honoring the new members the chapter will attend church services.

Gretchen Hart and Janet McEachron will represent Alpha Upsilon as candidates for queen of the annual Military Ball. The dance will be March 7, and the queen and her attendants will be presented during the intermission.

Winifred Denton will take the feminine lead of Laurey in the play, "Green Grow the Lilacs," which will be presented by the Washburn dramatics department on March 12, 13, 14, and 15.

One member of Alpha Upsilon chapter, Elizabeth Passman, had a 3 point scholarship average for the first semester. Whiting scholars were Ruth Hille, Nancy Marsh and Mickey Wely. These girls had a 2.4 or better grade average.

Four Thetas will take part in the May Fete, traditional modern dance review here at Washburn. They are Joan Bennett, Janet McEachron, Janet Polom and Marilyn Towler. Janet and Marilyn are members of the Modern Dance club. Swimming in the Dolphin water show will be Joan Bennett and Nancy Marsh. Nancy is a member of the Dolphin club and Joanne a pledge.

As a pledge project, the pledge class is making 40 stuffed animals which will be sent to the children at the Institute of Logopedics at Wichita.

Doris Reid has been selected to represent the chapter at the national convention this summer. Doris has served as treasurer of the chapter and has been prominent in many school activities.

Officers for the coming year will be elected in three weeks.

Nancy Marsh has again been elected as editor of the Washburn Review, school paper, for the spring semester. Ella Mae Terhune and Jane Warburton are working on the paper as news editor and society editor.

Washington, St. Louis

After mid-semester rushing we pledged Jean Ford of Clayton, Marilyn Heggeman of Normandy, and Sheila Handley and June Schumacher of Webster Groves. Initiation for nine of our fifteen fall pledges will take place March 8, and will be followed by the annual Founders' Day banquet at Westborough Country Club. The chapter welcomes these new members: Barbara Boeger, Priscilla Campbell, Katherine Elder, Ann Griesedieck, Peggy Gwynn, Kay Moon, Jeanne Pauley, Susan Pierce and Meryl Schmidt.

The election of officers has just taken place, and the new ones are: Betsy Poss, president; Betty Sue North, vice president; Alice Finley, recording secretary; Mardy Gallenkamp, corresponding secretary; Gloria Keitel, treasurer, and Mary Ziercher, rush chairman. Mary is also a candidate for secretary of Panhellenic.

Bearskin Follies, the campus variety show in which organizations compete for giant-sized trophies, is to be held March 1. Our skit, under the direction of Gloria Keitel, placed in the try-outs.

The bi-annual scholarship dinner is to be held March 16. The practice of competition for highest grades between actives has raised the chapter's scholastic average.

Many events are on the calendar for the spring semester, the most important of which are Quad Show, Thurtene Carnival, and WUMS swimming carnival (in which we will be well represented by Annette Gardiner, Barbara Boeger, Ann Martin, Ann Griesedieck, Nancy Stevens and Katherine Elder) and the chapter will be active in all of them.

March 1

ALICE FINLEY

Washington, Seattle

Molly Forler of Seattle was elected chapter president for the coming year by her Alpha Lambda sisters recently. Other major officers are: Betsy Ann Lindsay, vice president; Sally Easterbrook, rush chairman; Harriet Hill, corresponding secretary; Jude Hansen, recording secretary; Avalee Latimer, treasurer; Cappy Mauk, scholarship chairman; Barbara Thomas, social chairman; Sally Mounsey, house manager; Nancy Haskill, standards chairman; Peggins Newguard, activities chairman.

The glitter of a queen's crown has livened our house more than once this winter quarter. Marie Svendsen captured the hearts of Sigma Chis and was chosen their ideal "sweetheart" at a formal ball in February.

Two weeks later Jean Ross swished in from the annual NROTC "ring dance" with the equally breath-taking title of "Navy Queen." Jean's selection as recording secretary of Associated Women Students at the University had proved her political capabilities earlier in the month.

This flurry of winter honors was set off in January when Ann Rolfe was chosen as a finalist for "Varsity Queen." As if we needed more to liven our spirits, Karen Hulquist and Marie Svendsen were selected as "Rally Girls" for the coming season.

Actives took over pledge duties and showered the pledges with parties and fun during inspiration week in January. The week ended on a more serious note with initiation and Founders' Day banquet to make our friendships stronger and more meaningful than ever.

An "Evening in Paris" mood, even to a spotlighted fountain and glittering stars overhead, characterized the winter dance given by the freshmen in January. Another highlight on our winter social calendar was an informal tea for our mothers.

Here at Alpha Sigma, the second semester is well under way. Plans are nearly complete for our annual Musicale to be given March 30 in honor of Mrs. Hazel Baird Beil, president of District XV. Jody Luck of Beta Theta will be the featured singer, with our own Jeanne LaLone playing piano selections and Beth Folsom giving a reading. Our dates will be honored at the annual Friendship Dinner March 1.

We are proud of Barbara Barksdale of Spokane, Alpha Sigma's new pledge. Initiation will be March 8 for Martha Gilleland (daughter of Louise Heathman Gilleland), Dorothy Ann Donovan, Jeanne LaLone, Louise Mullen, Mary Ruddell and Mary White.

Newly-elected house officers are: president, Jeanine Hoyt; vice president and pledge trainer, Marianne Troy; recording secretary, Mary Sue Clizer; corresponding secretary, Rosemary Eschbach; treasurer, Donna Wood; house chairman, Mary Ellen Gilmore; scholarship chairman, Jean Meese; rush chairman and song leader, Liane White; social chairman, Donna Hatcher, and fraternity education, Bonnie Blevins.

We miss our seniors who are doing their practice teaching during these weeks. Pi Lambda Theta, women's education honorary, recently initiated Nancy Martin, Charma Smith Berg, Jeannine Hoyt and Beth Folsom. Lael Anderson is secretary-treasurer of Mu Sigma Rho, dietetics honorary.

The Evergreen, WSC's daily newspaper, appointed Jeannine Hoyt to its new position of managing editor. The recent YWCA Smorgasbord had many Thetas working to make it a success. Jean Meese is the recently-elected first vice president of the Association. Nancy Graham is the retiring president.

WSC is experiencing much expansion. Holland Library is in constant use since it opened this last fall. The new women's dormitory will be completed this spring. With this coming fall marking the opening of the student union building, students, campus-wide, are busily designing placemats. The winning design will be used in the CUB (Cougar Union Building).

As part of the foreign student program here on campus, we are fortunate to have Innet deGadolin living with us this semester. Innet is from Finland. February 28

William & Mary

On Jan. 13 the Thetas presented their 26 new pledges at a reception for all the fraternity men on campus. On Feb. 17 after informal rushing we pledged two more girls. They are Pat Lewis, Richmond, and Sally Little, Zanesville, Ohio.

March promises to be a fabulous month for us all. The biggest event of the year, the dinner-dance at the Lodge, will be March 22. That month also we're anticipating a visit from our district president, Mrs. William Blackburn, from Alexandria, Virginia. February 29

With memories of a successful fall semester, Psi chapter turned with great enthusiasm to a new spring semester.

Our new pledges who have already taken active parts with their pledge sisters, are: June Larson, Peggy Bach, Terry Specia and Barbara Lee Howard. The Theta pledges gave the highest percent of blood in the blood drive which included all the pledges of the sororities and fraternities on the University campus. Our pledges were also honored with the invitation of participation in a four-way pledge party on campus. The whole chapter is proud of Mary Garstang, who was elected secretary of the Pledge Council and chairman of the ticket committee for the "March Roar," pledge formal.

When it was time for the beauty choosing on the campus, with the well known "Badger Beauty Contest," Theta shown through with four contestants: Betty Johnson, Marlyn McLean, Marcia Claflin and Linda Voelker.

Christmas at the Psi house was a gala whirl of activities. The season included a most effective Christmas dance with the theme of "Candy Stick Lane." The Thetas also had their annual Christmas party and caroling with Delta Upsilon fraternity.

Court honors from the Sigma Chi sweetheart ball were given to Barbara Bajace.

In the Men's Dolphin show, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," Kathleen Culhane was chosen to do the swimming solo of Snow White.

The spring semester opened with an array of new officers, headed by our new president, Elinor Westbury. Vice president's job is in the hands of Carol Greuetjen. Recording secretary is Donna Miller. Betty Johnson is our new treasurer. Our two rushing chairmen are Mitzi Forsyth, executive rush chairman, and Mary Schwenker, corresponding chairman.

Again the Thetas took an active part in the Ice Carnival, an annual affair at the University. Willa Widerborg was star of the skating and also chairman for the publicity of the "cabaret." Barbara Keck served as publicity head for the skiing. Modeling for the Ice Carnival were two Theta pledges, Helene Schlueter and Jane Kelbe.

Psi chapter has been kept busy with the whirl of activities connected with the Wisconsin Prom. This year the Thetas were selected to do the "Sadie Hawkins" publicity student. In this, the girls chased the fellows, who were our brother fraternity, the Phi Gamma Deltas. When the girls "Caught their man," they were given free tickets to the Prom. The girls were also given various gifts.

Two Thetas were put up as candidates for Prom Queen. Pat Ward, whom the Sigma Phi Epsilons nominated, and Sally Ribblet, whom the Thetas put up. Sally campaigned under the name of "The Girl with Blue Hair," and dyed her hair accordingly.

Founders' Day was celebrated Feb. 26. A banquet was held, followed by a delightful pledge skit. February 27
